Will Sniffs at Jail, Then Passes Hat in Lucky Towns for Us

(Special To The News)

CLEVELAND, O., March 29. Seven times Cleveland has voted down bonds to rebuild a jail that was built in 1866. I n company yesterday with every prominent minister in the city, Catholic, Jewish, Protestant and Baptist, w e went through the jail.

Honest, i t would be a disgrace to serve a term in it.

It will have to be rebuilt by outside subscriptions from humanitarian cities like Akron, Hamilton, Columbus, Cincinnati, Oberlin and Detroit.

I think it and Borah's fresh air fund to cauterize the Republicans are the two outstanding charities of the hour.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

James W. Cole, newly elected secretary of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, is taking hold of the local organization at a most auspicious time for him. During the past year the organization in charge of D. S. Pyle as president, an efficient board of directors, and Secretary A. W. Chilton, has done an excellent work, and he is taking over the administration of an organization that is in excellent working order. The outlook is exceptionally fine for the coming years.

Workmen employed in the construction work on the First National Bank of Lawrence County have moved the barricade fence on Mercer street back a few feet. Councilmen have been endeavoring to have he blockade in the street removed, and evidently a compromise has been reached, whereby the fence was moved back, but not removed entirely.

Some idea of the damage done by the terrific storm of Monday night, on the streets of this city can be gained by the demonstration now being made by the street department men. The sewer manholes along many of the streets are being cleaned out, and tons of dirt are being removed, most of it being that washed in by the recent heavy rain.

New Castle public school pupils will enjoy a vacation next week. The annual spring vacation begins on Friday and continues throughout the following week.

Another fine addition to the East Side district is announced in the columns of this paper last night. The new block erected by V. O. Potter on East Washington street is an imposing addition to the business district of the great East Side area.

Things were in an uproar in one of the large restaurants of the city last evening. Somehow a cat had strayed in and would not leave the place even though chased with huge bludgeons which should have frightened even the most desperate desperado. But he crouched in the corner and let loose the yowl Homeric. When Pa the most yowl Homeric. When Pa Newc and his companion had finished dinner he was still there and all efforts of the management to dislodge him were fruitless.

There is an old saw in the newspaper world to the effect that animals always make good copy, next to humans. Last evening at the intersection of Washington and Jefferson streets a little boy pulled an express wagon up the street. Perched in it not a bit frightened and chewing something or other, sat a large white rabbit, seeing everything with its moist pink eyes .People would stop to pet it; the rabbit would only crouch down and let it go at that. Perhaps it was emmensely proud of the furore which it created.

The caprices of nature sometimes make one wonder what is to happen next. In Mercer county during the recent storm a bolt of lightning passed through a mow of hay without igniting it.

VIGNETTES — The restauranteer tells us that the drifters have stopped drifting into his place to panhandle him for a cup of coffee. . . . And not so long ago he confided in us that he was the most panhandled

Nineteen Bidders Seek Contract For Princeton School

Bids Are Opened By Slippery Rock Township Board Wednesday Night

NO ACTION TAKEN ON CONTRACT AWARD

Bids Are Higher Than Board Had Anticipated, It Is Stated

Nineteen contractors made a bid on the general contract for the erection of an eight-room building near Princeton in Slippery Rock township as was shown by the opening of the bids at a meeting of the school directors of the township at a meeting at Princeton, Wednesday evening, March 28.

Although the bids were opened and read at the meeting last night no awards of contracts will be made until after the bonds are sold, the date of sale advertised being April 6. Also it is difficult to say to whom the contract will be awarded as manyof them are very close on the general contract and several alternates may make a difference of several thousand dollars.

Separate bids were made on the general contract as well as the contract for heating, plumbing and wiring. Following is a list of the contractors bidding with their basic bids.

Bids Submitted

M. Carcaise & Company, Rochester, Pa., $31,500; New Castle Lumber & Construction Co., $32,250; C. C. Miller, Butler, Pa., $32,435; George W. Lusk, New Castle, $32,995; E. R. Workley, Ellwood City, Pa., $33,332; Snyder Construction Co., Ellwood City, Pa., $33,991; Porter & Hoover, New Castle, Pa., $34,649; Hoyland & Frasso, New Castle, Pa., $34,718; A. Wishart & Sons Co., Sharon, Pa., $35,000; Watson & Hogue, New Castle, Pa., $35,532; L. P. Vaughn, New Castle, Pa., $35,978; Geo. Schenck & Co., Butler, Pa., $36,172; Matthew Leivo & Son, New Castle, Pa., $37,650; The Parish Bros. Co., Youngstown, Ohio, $37,782; A. C. Lusk, New Castle, Pa., $38,615; Keelan & Bost Co., Greenville, Pa., $38,653; H. V. Kirker Co., Beaver Falls, Pa., $33,660; J. Clyde Gilfillan Lumber Co., New Castle, Pa., $40,687; and J. C. Speaker, Youngstown, Ohio, $41,950.

A. L. Thayer, architect said today that the board considers that the bid of the Carcaise Construction Company of Rochester will not likely be considered, being deemed irregular in view of the fact that it was submitted by tlephone last night.

The bids on the heating were: R. T. Withers Sons Co., New Castle, $2087; R. S. Gribble, Jamestown, Pa., $2480; Wm. M. Clark & Co., New Castle,

Mother Of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge Spends Restful Night, Doctors Assert

By HAROLD J. NOONAN
International News Service Special Correspondent

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., March 29.—Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, mother of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, appeared stronger on awakening today, following the best day she has had in a week.

Mrs. Coolidge appeared greatly cheered at the optimistic report from Dr. Justin E. Hayes. The bulletin read:

"The patient has had the best day she has had for a week and was very comfortable tonight. She seems very bright."

Mrs. Coolidge dined with friends after visiting her mother in Cooley-Dickinson hospital.

The fact that Dr. Hayes did not make any statement in regard to the kidney complication of his patient leads many to believe that this trouble may have been relieved somewhat in the last 24 hours.

Mrs. Goodhue was cheered by a brief visit from the Rev. Kenneth B. Welles, pastor of the Edwards Congregational church which she attends. Mrs. Coolidge was present at the time the Rev. Mr. Welles called.

Another visitor that interested Mrs. Goodhue was Blackberry the Chow dog that Mrs. Coolidge brought with her from the White House. Mrs. Coolidge drove to the hospital in an army limousine placed at her disposal by Major-General Preston Brown of the First Corps Area.

DUBLIN, March 29.—Because of unfavorable weather conditions and the sogginess of the ground at the Baldonnel Airfield, Capt. Herman Koehl and his two companions today were forced again to postpone their take-off for America in the Junkers monoplane Bremen.

Everything was in readiness for the hop-off at five o'clock, the time set for the start today, and the fliers were loath to announce another postponement.

Man Wanted For Shooting Woman To Death Shoots Self

(International News Service)

WALKILL, N. Y., March 29.—Harry McHugh, local postmaster sought for the murder of a nineteen-year old telephone operator, cheated his captors with his own gun today and mortally wounded himself when cornered in a lumber yard.

McHugh was taken to his home here, where his death was momentarily expected.

He fled the town Tuesday after Marie Terwilliger was shot down and killed in the doorway of the telephone exchange. McHugh's younger brother Jesse was to marry the girl, with whom Harry had been in love.

State troopers commanded by Sergeant Lockhart of Highland station scoured the countryside in vain until this morning, when a tip led them to the lumber yard on the outskirts of town.

The postmaster, who was a shell-shocked war veteran, was seen hiding behind a lumber pile. As the three troopers closed in about him, he drew his revolver and shot himself in the head.

While the man hunt was in progress, Jesse McHugh sat desolately in the funeral parlor of Charles Ronk, near the body of his murdered fiancee.

Mrs. Kegarise On Airplane Trip To New Castle

Mrs. Ralph R. Kegarise, wife of R. R. Kegarise, head of the Kegarise Air Transport Company, hopped off about noon today in the new plane of the company at the Pittsburgh airport, where the plane is being kept pending the completion of a hangar at the Kegarise field on the Wilmington road. The plane was in charge of the pilot of the Kegarise Company and it was planned to arrive here within half an hour.

The trip had hardly been started, however, according to a telephone message received from Mrs. Kegarise about 1:30 o'clock today, when a forced landing had to be made at Parkers Landing, Butler county, on account of a terrific storm, which the plane and its occupants encountered.

At the time the message was received, it was stated by Mrs. Kegarise that it was planned to hop off for here as soon as conditions permitted and that it was expected that they would arrive here in an hour or so.

It is planned that the plane encircle the city several times before landing on the field north of the city.

Speedy Reclamation Of Valuable Farm Lands Starts In Northern California

SACRAMENTO VALLEY BACK TO NORMAL

Ranchers' Fight To Stave Off Further Depredations

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—While encouraging reports of speedy reclamation and recovery from flood damage poured in here today from all sections of northern and central California, ranchers of Sutter county continued to wage relentless battle against the still threatening waters of the Feather river.

Sand bags, fallen trees and debris of all descriptions were marshalled to the aid of weak spots along the 3,500 foot concrete causeway, as bulwarks were hastily built here and there along the structure to prevent a recurrence of yesterday's destructive breaks, when six units of the causeway collapsed before the seething river, hurling a flood upon thousands of acres of valuable farm land.

The ranchers' fight to stave off further depredations along the Feather river showed every prospect of being victorious today, as Bert B. Meek, state public works director in charge of the operations, reported that the peak of the peril had passed with the subsidence of the water.

Meanwhile other flood areas are reported that virtually all danger from further destruction had passed.

North Sacramento, inundated and isolated by the onrush of the American river's swollen stream, was again reported accessible to automobile traffic.

Railroads, highways, bridges and buildings in the flood wake of the receding waters were being rapidly restored to their normal condition.

Apartment House Damaged By Fire

(International News Service)

ALTOONA, Pa., March 29. — The W. Ross Shaffer apartment at Hollidaysburg, lay in ruins today after a fire which swept the building causing $10,000 damage.

Firemen from Duncansville, Lakemont and Lakemont Terrace assisted the Hollidaysburg company. The Shaffer, Milo Leonard and Clyde Bice families were homeless.

The cause of the blaze was believed to have been an overheated furnace.

Chicago Seeking Federal Aid In April Primaries

Recommend To Attorney General Sargent That 500 Deputies Be Used

POLITICAL BONFIRE CONTINUES TO RAGE

Probe Of Recent Bombings Continues; Several Threats Are Heard

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, March 29.—Fuel was added to Chicago's raging political bonfire today when it became known that United States Marshal Palmer Anderson had dispatched a recommendation to Attorney General Sargent at Washington that 500 United States deputy marshals be authorized to stand guard over the ballot boxes at the April 10 primaries here.

The proposal, first suggested by Oscar E. Carlstrom, attorney general of Illinois, is regarded by political observers as a gesture in retaliation for the bombings Monday night of the home of Senator Charles S. Deneen and Judge John A. Swanson, the Deneen-Carlstrom candidate for state's attorney.

Is Legal Practice.

The use of federal guards, Deneen leaders pointed out, is made possible under a recent ruling of the United States supreme court which held that a primary is an integral part of an election and therefore subject to federal supervision.

Meanwhile, authorities busied themselves today in prosecuting investigations of the political bombings and in trying to trace the source of new threats received by Judge Swanson and State Senator Herman J. Haenisch, Deneen candidate for committeeman from the 46th ward.

"You can tell the judge that we will do a better job next time," was the substance of an anonymous telephone threat received at the home of Judge Swanson. The threat was re-

Flood Control Measure Faces Fight In House

Administration Leaders Demand Changes In Bill Before Presenting It

UNCERTAIN ABOUT DEFINITE ACTION

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The unparalleled action of the Senate in passing a $325,000,000 flood control bill in less than two hours failed to wipe out today the stubborn opposition of a House group which is determined that the people of the Mississippi valley shall pay part of the cost of harnessing the mighty stream.

Administration leaders were demanding changes in the bill before it is brought on the floor, while backers of the "government pay all" plans were clamoring for speedy action.

Swift upon the heels of the Senate's action Representative Reid (R.) of Illinois, chairman of the flood control committee, filed a report for a majority of the committee favoring enactment of its own bill, which is

Borah Warns Against Parties Side-Stepping Prohibition Question

Ultimatum Delivered By Senator Borah Today Causes Concern In Capital

Predicts Trouble Ahead If Important Issue Is Given Go-By

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Senator William E. Borah served notice upon both major parties today that if they attempt to side-step or soft-pedal the issue of prohibition in their party platforms this year there is going to be trouble ahead—and plenty of it.

Great as is the issue of driving corruption from party councils and from government itself, the issue of upholding and enforcing the constitution, i. e., the eighteenth amendment, is greater and more fundamental, the Idaho senator asserted.

Conspiracy of Silence

Already, he charged, the ruling powers in both Republican and Democratic parties have decided there shall be "a conspiracy of silence" concerning prohibition. To break that conspiracy, he exhorts the drys of both parties to move upon Kansas City and Houston a few weeks hence and demand that the platform framers "fish or cut bait" upon the issue of prohibition.

Borah's charges of bi-partisan conspiracy and his warning that trouble lies ahead if party leaders attempt it, were contained in a remarkable speech which he addressed last night via radio to a group of Ohio women voters.

It caused considerable excitement in the capital today—and considerable uneasiness on the part of Republican leaders.

For Borah plans to go to Kansas City himself and conduct the fight for a bone-dry plank in the Republican platform. Realizing Borah's combative powers, and scenting that Governor Al Smith probably will be the Democratic nominee, Republican leaders are stirring uneasily over the prospect of going to the country next November positively committed to bone-dryness.

After reviewing the governmental scandals of the last few years, which, he said, had compelled the Republican party to "face its critics humiliated and silenced", Borah declared he did not believe the Kansas City convention would "dare confess its moral delinquency to the world", by refusing to face the issue of constitutional enforcement.

Bitter Campaign

"It looks," he said significantly, "as if we were going to have a bitter campaign in which no man or woman will be spared who comes within reach of the firing line.

"But you will observe that upon the subject of the eighteenth amendment there is a 'concord of sweet sounds'. Republican voices and Dem-

Escaped Convict Shot And Killed In Philadelphia

Detective Kills Convict In Thrilling Gun Battle; Accomplice Captured

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—Enmeshed in a police dragnet laid to trap the bandits who killed a theatre manager and wounded a 17-year-old girl patron here recently, James Catina, 21, escaped convict from Newark, N. J., was shot to death early today after a desperate gun battle with three detectives.

Catina's accomplice, Victor Marcello, alias Maesillio, 25, who broke jail with him in Newark early this year, escaped amid a hail of bullets by running into the Baltimore & Ohio's freight yards here but was captured several hours later.

Police claim Marcello admitted having committed numerous taxicab holdups.

Catina, identified by several recent holdup victims after being slain, fell dead when a bullet fired by Detective Slavin severed his jugular vein after he emptied two pistols and drew a third in a vain effort to repulse the sleuth.

Finnefrock Back Home After 18,000 Mile Trip

F. M. Finnefrock, of 315 Florence avenue, arrived at his home here last night after a trip of some 15,000 to 18,000 miles, from New Castle to New York, to the Pacific Coast via Panama canal, and back by the same route.

He left New Castle in November, went to New York, where he shipped as a seaman on a freighter going to Los Angeles, via Panama canal. After reaching California, he went up the Pacific coast on bus line routes, and for a time worked in Tacoma, Washington. He visited Seattle and numerous other cities of the great northwest.

Then he returned to San Francisco, and again secured a place as a seaman on a freighter bound from that port to Philadelphia, and came back through the Panama canal. He stopped off in Panama City and at other points of interest. The trip from one coast port to another, such as he made via the canal takes about 15 days time.

The Pacific ocean was glassy smooth but a terrific storm was encountered off Cape Hatteras in the Atlantic ocean on the return voyage.

The tour was a most interesting one to Mr. Finnefrock.

He says that California is no place for any young man to go who is hunting work. There simply are no jobs of any kind to be found in the coast state, he reports.

While in Tacoma, Washington, he reports he saw news items from the New Castle News. It was like a real breath of home, he relates.

Cloak Of Mystery Surrounds Finding Of Girl's Body River

(International News Service)

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., March 29.—The particular cause of the death of Miss Viola May, 23, was still cloaked in mystery today, following the coroner's inquest.

Her brother-in-law, William D. Herron, 41, in jail here, has confessed to authorities that he choked the young woman and threw her body into the Tuscarawas river from which it was recovered.

But the coroner's inquest indicated the young woman had not died as a result of being choked or drowned.

The belief now is that she died of fright. If this be the case, Herron's fight to escape the electric chair will be greatly aided, his attorneys believed today.

While walking about the city this morning Pa. Newc's attention was attracted to the roof of the Fred D. The name is painted on both sides of the slanting roof while on the flat roof of another section of the building a large yellow arrow which conforms to government specifications has been painted.

Several city workmen were busy today rounding off the corners of the intersection of South Mercer and South streets, which will meet with the approval of every motorist around New Castle.

NINETEEN BIDDERS SEEK CONTRACT FOR PRINCETON SCHOOL

$2650, and Gardner Bros., Ellwood City, $2694.

Bids on the plumbing contract were: R. T. Withers Sons Co., New Castle, $7175; Wm. M. Clark & Co., New Castle, $8140; Standard Engineering & Manufacturing Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., $8800 and R. S. Gribble, Jamestown, Pa., $9680.

There were three bids on the electric wiring as follows: Marvin Electric Co., $1346; Riverside Electric Co., $1525 and McKeown Electric Co., $1940.

Bids were taken on a four, six and eight room building, but it was found when the bids were compared that it would be highly advantageous to erect the eight room building.

Owing to the fact that the bids were so much higher than was expected, the board did not take any action. Further consideration will be given to them at another meeting, when the contract will either be let or it will be decided to re-advertise for bids.

The board had hoped to get the entire building with heating, plumbing and electric, erected within the amount appropriated by the bond issue.

"A few months ago certain Republicans were going to force a plank for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment, and certain Democrats were going to do likewise in the Democratic party—but where there once were vigorous voices now no sound stirs the stagnant air which envelopes the council chamber.

Neutral Territory

"The men who understand practical politics are agreed. No matter how fierce the battle elsewhere, the eighteenth amendment is neutral territory—and the antagonists meet for consultation and congratulation. What is the constitution between enemies?"

With almost evangelistic fervor, Borah exhorted his hearers to "move on Kansas City and Houston".

"Insist upon being heard before the committees," he said. "Knock at the doors of committee rooms. What they are doing there concerns you. It is your affairs they are passing on. They are your agents.

"There will be an effort to adopt planks so meaningless and so near alike that the voters have no choice.

"The first battle in the struggle ahead should be at Kansas City and Houston, and the next on the ides of November."

CHICAGO SEEKING FEDERAL AID IN APRIL PRIMARIES

ceived by Mrs. Swanson, alfeady on the verge of a nervous collapse from having her house bombed Monday night.

State Senator Threatened.

The threat to State Senator Haenisch came in the form of an anonymous letter, stating that his home was marked for bombing and that one of his children was to be kidnaped. The letter, crudely written and addressed to his wife, read as follows:

"Evidently you don't know that there is a plot on to get one of your babies before the primaries, do you? It may happen like Swanson's house or Senator Deneen's. Tell your fat husband to beware." It was signed "The Rat".

The letter was turned over to United States District Attorney George C. Q. Johnson, who passed it on to postal authorities.

Guards, already on duty at the threatened homes, were augmented when the new threats were received. Commissioner of Police Michael Hughes told Judge Swanson not to "worry". The judge replied that after having his home damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars and narrowly missing death himself at the hands of a wild "pineapple" thrower, he believed it was high time for "somebody to worry".

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, rival of Judge Swanson for the Republican nomination for state's attorney, announced that his investigation of the Deneen and Swanson bombing outrages was well launched and that he expected early results.

"But until we have something concrete we will not go before the grand jury," said Crowe. "There will be no blowing of horns in my investigation. We will proceed quietly and secretly and hope for results."

Crowe and his political associates who have offered rewards totaling $65,000, charge that the bombings were perpetrated by hoodlums within the Deneen-Swanson organizations in an effort to discredit the administration of Mayor William Hale Thompson and himself.

Distribute Covies Of Hungarian Quail

Frank Johnston, Game Protector, And Others Make Distribution Today

Local Game Protector Frank N. Johnston, assisted by Charles Withers, president of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association and Andy Dodds, are spending the day, planting covies of Hungarian quail, just received from Hungary, by the Pennsylvania Game Commission, in various sections of the county best suited to the propogation of this type of game bird.

The covies are being distributed in Pulaski, Washington, Hickory, Scott, Plaingrove and Wilmington townships. Twelve covies in all were distributed and each convey consists of six males and six females.

The birds are healthy and extremely fine specimens of the Hungarian quail and should develop numerous other covies during the coming breeding season, providing their natural enemies, such as dogs, etc., do not disturb them to much.

The birds are beauties and not only have beautiful feathers but have beautiful monogram effects worked out on their breasts. They have a monetary value of approximately $3.50 each.

CHICAGO'S ORGY OF LAWLESSNESS

CHICAGO citizens of the decent sort are up in arms.

They realize that their great city has tolerated feniency in treating the city's bootlegging, banditry and lawlessness far too long.

From what was regarded as a bootleggers and underworld feud in which bombs, machine guns, kidnapping, murder, etc., prevailed, has developed the most serious crisis the city has seen in many years.

The terrorism has reached out and included persons high up in city and national affairs. Bombing of their homes has created widespread uneasiness in Chicago.

The toleration that had been shown towards the crime orgy in the Illinois city has reached a point where Chicago's decent citizens demand that it be effectually curbed. And the decent citizens are in the great majority in Chicago, like they are in any other American city.

But, any other city in America large or small, can take warning from the conditions in Chicago at the present time, and realize that the time to curb outlawry is at its inception. It is not a thing to be trifled with!

GERMANS ESSAY TRANSATLANTIC FLIGHT

THE flight of three German aviators from Berlin to Dublin, Ireland, Monday, was of itself a voyage of ordinary duration and distance, but it was the preliminary of another effort to cross the North Atlantic Ocean from East to West which will have extraordinary interest.

Captain Koehl and his companions are said to have staked everything on their venture, even the disapproval of the German aviation authorities, who insisted that no transatlantic flight should be attempted with a machine having less than three motors and a substantial boat body. Yet the Bremen is no toy plane. She is the sister ship and duplicate of the all-metal Europa built by the Junkers Company which holds the present world's endurance mark, having remained aloft for fifty-two hours. It is estimated that the Bremen will carry enough fuel to remain aloft forty-five hours, which would be a ten-hour margin over the average time required for a flight to New York.

There are three other German expeditions preparing for Atlantic crossings this year and no less than ten French enterprises are seriously under way, some of them virtually at the point of actual flight at the first favorable "break" of the weather. Holland and Poland each has an entry and Italy plans two flights headed by de Bernardi and de Pinedo. British undertakings have been occulted for the present by the failure of Hinchcliffe's flight, but Spain, Belgium, Czechoslovakia and Rumania have tentative entries.

The real problem faced by this mass of entries, many of which are spurred by prize offers for the first westward flight, is the earliest possible take-off under the best weather conditions. May and June are the ideal months for transatlantic flying along the ordinary routes in the North Atlantic, but, the example of Captain Koehl is likely at the least to spur other competitors to rush the season.

Every man knows how to reduce his own taxes. This is so simple. Put them on the other fellow.

Men have quite a catalog of faults, but aside from downright wickedness laziness would seem to be about the worst.

The story handed down to posterity doesn't say so, but probably Methusaleh spent the last 785 years being interviewed on how he did it.

THRILLS

Don't condemn young folks of today for wanting thrills. What we need most to do is to lead them into wanting the right sort of thrills. Can't expect youth not to have pep, to want to go and do and see. But there are thrills in work—interesting, snappy work. There are thrills in some of the greatest books ever written. There are thrills in the best music. It is not wrong to look for and to find thrills. There are plenty in life. We do not have to look for them in the gutter.

IDEAS FOR THE MOVIES

Some of the motion picture producers find business bad. Bermann, German novelist who helped prepare one of the most successful screen productions, gives the reason. He says the industry is hard hit because of lack of ideas. People are tired going to the same kind of shows, knowing in advance just how everything is going to turn out. They are tired of seeing the same stars exploited, regardless of how good or bad the picture is. The big owners must find new and better directors. The directors must find new and better talent. The people demand ideas. The motion pictures need ideas.

DEBATING

The world would be a dull place without some good debating, without some difference of opinion, without some controversial matter. Along comes the British hand of the law and says that in England "controversial matter" must not be broadcast. That doesn't sound like England, which permits street corner speakers to lambast the government and even talk about the king. England should show no reversal of form on the radio. We don't want censorship of speeches over the radio any more than we want censorship anywhere. Let the people hear. Trust them to make up their minds.

STARTING

The hardest thing is not work. The hardest thing is starting work. In the time we fiddle around before getting under way we might have the most difficult job half done. Things are rarely as hard to do as we think they are going to be. We suffer most in anticipation. It's really fear that keeps us from starting. The water's fine when we get in. The least pain comes when we plunge. The wind is the coldest when we dawdle along the bank.

Q. What makes a parrot pull out its feathers? G. C. K.

A. Feather pulling in parrots is a distressing habit brought about by various causes and the treatment must vary according to the basic trouble. Irritation of the skin following indigestion is one cause. Feather pulling may be due to lice, in which event dust pyrehrum powder through the feathers to the skin of the bird at intervals until all the parasites are killed, and thoroughly sterilize the cage or other quarters.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:21. Sun rises tomorrow 5:48.

Smile.

It is often a good thing for you to try and do some thinking for yourself. It is dangerous to let other people do your thinking for you all the time.

Most every human has a fad for collecting something or other, but all humans are unanimous on collecting one thing—money. And it is often hard work to do that.

A professional reformer generally is a fellow who has gotten too old to have any fun.

A bill to curb fur frauds in this country has been introduced into congress. This may be the result of the fur of many a house cat being sold for genuine sealskin. It's wonderful what can be done to a disreputable looking piece of fur.

About the only records some people break are the phonograph records.

A lady in Beaver Falls in order to get her husband out of jail went into court and said it was her who had been guilty of the liquor law violation and the judge immediately released her husband and sent her to jail for six months. Now that is what could be called a real sacrificing and loving wife.

Matrimony: A license to tell your bridge partner just what you think of his or her dumbness.

People in the old days used to go just as fast a clip as we do today, only then they bent their energy on work and fighting, while today we crave sports and cabarets.

The News always likes to publish interesting letters from people from most anywhere but when people leave New Castle for good and never boosted their home city by one hoot and then start writing letters back to us telling what a great country they are located in now and how much better it is than New Castle we draw the line and don't print the gush. Those people are as a rule interested in some land deal and want some free advertising.

A local chap was asked if he had been in the stock market during the slump and he replied sadly, "Yes, I was in—very bad.

Waiters want to be called something else and they will be if they do not hustle up some of the orders they take.

There are too many people in this world who make reckless and irresponsive statements. Most people will believe any wild yarn they hear and no amount of argument or truth will ever make them believe anything else. A mighty lot of harm is done by people who say things they know nothing about.

The trouble with spending money for pleasure lots of time is that we don't get it.

A play called "Lulu Belle" which has had a long and successful run in New York has been barred from Boston. Thousands of people from the plowed ground and provinces have paid big prices to see this show just because they were away from home. From what we know of it we tnink Boston is about right. And anyone who knows us will admit we are no mollycoddle.

We often wonder why a man who doesn't believe in fairies expects his wife to believe in fairy stories.

People who take an interest in the public schools and the teachers who have charge of their children are the ones who are the real friends of the great American school system. Knowing the school and the teacher is a big help to all concerned. Visit the schools.

It is often more important to check up on your physical condition than it is to check up on your bank account. Bank accounts are no good—TO YOU—after you are dead.

A German doctor declares that riding in an airplane is good for the whoopingcough. We are glad we are past the whoopingcough stage and we did not have it until we were about 30 years old and it mighty near killed us then.

A chap at Aliquippa used a candle while repairing a leak in a gas line. After he got back to earth and could recognize where he was he said the next time he would not use a candle to fix a gas line.

Most men flatter themselves they are misunderstood, when really no one cares enough about them to go to all that trouble.

Cold wintry blasts do not feel very good on faces covered with tropical tan.

If you can make people believe that your mistakes are virtues you are a politician and don't know it.

Many of the young men who are going to be married next June will find it out along about Easter time or a short time afterwards.

A noted doctor says for us not to rush old age. We have not been, but old age seems to be racing us.

It's no use for mothers to plead with the daughters to keep their skirts down. They don't make 'em that way.

A membership in the New Castle Motor club will be found a great asset while touring over the country. Some time ago we asked a chap at a filling station if a certain road had been opened up which would have saved us a ten mile drive over a bad detour. He said it was not open. A chap who was standing near said it was open. There was a doubt and the place where the new road started was five miles from the point we were at. We went to the A. A. A. and in half a minute knew for sure the road had been opened that morning and we got to our destination in ten miles instead of thirty. You can get routed to any point in the United States in a few minutes and there are hundreds of other things worth the price of membership. That great magazine the American Motorist goes with a membership. We will take the trouble to tell you all about it.

You will get a chance to vote on the adoption of voting machines in Pennsylvania at the coming fall election. The voting machines are great. They will soon pay for themselves by doing away with an army of judges and clerks at an election and the result will be known a few minutes after the last vote is cast. It often takes several days to determine an election now.

The penitentiaries and work houses are so full now that many of them will not accept any more prisoners. What's the answer to that?

When young people get married they become one but it is difficult to tell which won.

In a rough and tumble fight it's tough on the young man who put his nose between the other fellow's teeth and refuses to let go.

Horses had the heaves and the string halt but they never skidded and turned upside down in the bed of a creek.

The groundhog was off it's noodle as usual this year. A groundhog does not know anything about the weather anyhow.

"Spend 24 hours in bed," says a physician, "and you'll have the equivalent in health of a week's vacation." On that basis the chap who has spent six weeks in bed has about the equivalent of a year's trip abroad, but we'd like to see the man with the nerve to tell him so.

QUARRELING OVER A CHILD

"Father and mother fight over child. Judge to hand down decision today."

This could only be a modern headline. Years ago parents fought, but they did not fight over the children. Judges were not called upon to make such decisions, and surely now they must long for the wisdom of Solomon. Could even Solomon have decided such a question?

There is something poignantly sad about parents making of their child a legal issue, a parcel, as it were; a material possession over which a stranger must pronounce final judgment.

Do such parents love that child? One must doubt it. Though they may believe their affection to be great such an experience is agony for the child. It could do harm for life. The spectacle of father and mother, two persons to whom a son should look for guidance and refuge, squabbling over his possession, must put a mark upon the soul that the years can never erase.

And how is man to make a wise decision in such an event? Both love the child. Both long for it. Both anguish over its loss.

Those who conclude that fathers do not love their children are wrong. Some men adore their offspring even more warmly than the mothers, although they may not be so ready to sacrifice their time to them. And it is quite as unjust to snatch a child from his father as it is to tear him from maternal arms.

Here, then, we can easily see, is a problem that the courts can never solve, no matter how wise they be. This thing is up to men and women. Parents who find they cannot live together in harmony can either behave like rational and just beings and avert tragedy from a child, or they can act like a couple of angry dogs snarling over a bone and harm the one they love for life.

RISKY

It is risky to hurry; it is risky to tarry;
Singleness is risky; it is risky to marry.
It is risky to ride; it is risky to walk;
Silence is risky; it is risky to talk;
It is risky to phone; it is risky to write.
The day time is risky and so is the night.
It is risky to motor; it is risky to fly;
And, by heck, it is risky for many to die.

"Don't git too impatient wif de young folks," said Uncle Eben; "chillun is disobey'n deir parents 'bout de same as de way parents used to disobey when dey was chillun."

MATTRESS HANDLES

Make a spring resolution to get handles on all mattresses to facilitate turning. Make handles by stitching strips of ticking together for strength. Attach two to a side.

You can tell the guest room. It's the one with the motto on the wall and seven cigarette burns on the dresser.

Mary found a shell fish once,

The more we think of it the more Will Rogers' solution of the traffic problem appeals to us. "Keep all the cars that haven't been paid for off the streets," said he, "and there will be no more traffic troubles."

TAKE IT AWAY

They bought her a dress
But she cried in distress,
"It doesn't show enough of my hose."

Stars and Stocks Split.

A Happy Moment.

Learning to Live.

Obregon, Be Warned.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

From South Africa astronomers send word the great star, Nova Pictoris, has split in two.

We are excited on this little earth ball when a big stock "splits two for one". If we were a few billion miles nearer Nova Pictoris, we should have a new meaning for "split". How safely we live in our little corner of space with fearful cataclysms around us. We should be grateful.

The bears had a happy moment Tuesday while Wall Street bought and sold 4,875,660 shares of stock, breaking all records since the beginning of time, and General Motors dropped nearly 20 points. They were not so happy when it climbed back again above 190. As Mayor Thompson of Chicago would say, any advice not to sell the stock market short "goes double" for General Motors.

Some poor bears celebrated by selling "Radio" short. Bulls were ready to buy a quarter of a million shares of that stock. The bears' paws were burned. Radio rose $12.

Paste this in your hat: Invest. Don't gamble. Don't sell short.

American business men are learning to prolong life. John D. Rockefeller, one of the hardest workers, who has given away half a billion, is well on his way to 90. George F. Baker, one of the world's three richest men, celebrated his 88th birthday yesterday and will soon come back from Georgia to New York, tired of being away from business.

In the old days of Jay Gould fighting business men did not live long. They had not learned how to eat or when to exercise.

President Obregon thinks Mexico needs prohibition. Alcohol, says he, "is the enemy of the republic". If he will put on a bulletproof suit and inspect some of our better bootleg districts he will find that bootlegging can also be an enemy.

Obregon should take away from Mexicans their horrible pulque, close to wood alcohol, and persuade Mexicans to drink light wine and beer.

If he tries absolute prohibition, he will succeed no better than we do, and will be getting bootleg pulque, if possible even worse than the original article.

Ogden Mills, assistant secretary of the treasury, tells Yale boys that newspapers are important and "raise or lower the tone of national life".

It is national life that raises or lowers the tone of newspapers. Civilization creates them and they reflect civilization, they don't create it.

The editor who thinks he makes the world go round is in a class with the editor of the "Skibbereen Eagle", who said, "We have our eye on the Czar of Russia."

United States Senator Dineen, according to the Associated Press, attended the funeral of "Diamond Joe" Esposito, notorious gang leader, murdered by his followers.

Now Senator Dineen's Chicago house is bombed, presumably by those that disapproved of Esposito.

It seems dangerous for United States senators to attend funerals of gang leaders, even when they are good Republican workers.

Postmaster John M. Garrett of Moulton, Iowa, believes there is no such thing as "the ether", therefore radio cannot travel through ether. "I am instructed to offer ten thousand dollars in gold for substantial proof that ether exists in our atmosphere."

Existence of the ether cannot be physically proved. But scientists, from Newton on, have believed in its existence, for such substance is necessary in connection with the law of gravitation. It would take too long to say why.

Ether fills all space. All other substance is unsubstantial compared with it.

We must remember that so-called solid matter is not solid. The atoms making up a lead spoon are as far apart in proportion to their size as the earth from the sun. What Lodge calls "the imponderable ether" is inconceivably solid. Wide open matter passes through the ether as a fisherman's net passes through water.

You cannot prove the existence of ether, or see electricity, or demonstrate the existence of eternal law. But the mind accepts them as realities.

The wise man agrees with Socrates, who said: "I know that I know nothing."

President Coolidge will decide, within a week, how much should be cut from your taxes, $200,000,000 perhaps.

A few more people shot in Mexico for rebellion against the established government.

SPEND LESS TIME—

Envying other people's good fortune and make some for yourself.
Watching the clock and more time watching your work.
Knocking your firm and more time checking up on your own work.
Hunting for alibis and you will have more time for your opportunities.
Looking for insults and your whole mental health will improve.
Thinking about evil and temptations will pass you by, unnoticed.
Thinking about what you have done and more about what you ought to do.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

HERE'S HOW

After all, the main difference between virtue and vice is a question of how much and how little.

Every force in the world and every instinct says to us, "Here's how," and the wise man is the man who knows where to stop.

The motto of Socrates was, "Nothing too much."

A witty Frenchman described vices as but our virtues carried to excess.

The ravages of social disorder, the foul diseases and the blasted lives caused by misdirected affection, are the result of human passion carried to excess. That passion, properly restricted and controlled, gives us some of the most beautiful phases of life.

Anger is good up to a certain point, and it is a poor man who will not resent wrong-doing; yet if carried beyond its proper bourne, and becomes vengeance, anger becomes a vice.

There are many medicines, such as strychnine, which administered in proper doses are a stimulent and a tonic, but in too great doses can produce death.

So there is hardly any emotion of which the human breast is capable that cannot become a devastating plague unless it is properly controlled.

The first duty of mankind, therefore, is to learn self-control. He should be able to say when.

Maternal affection is a beautiful and wholesome thing, but often eventuates in harm when it becomes an unreasoning obsession.

We are told in a list of the virtues of the perfect man that first comes Love, but last comes Temperance.

Temperance is the supreme law of heaven. It is that final conquest that comes as the result of self discipline.

It is that which adorns and beautifies the whole man and lends color and beauty to every virtue.

Temperance means skill and adeptness in self control. There is no complete character without it.

The child, therefore, should not only be taught to shun certain things, but to make wise choices, for of these choices is built up the sum of life.

No one can take the place in you of your own judgment and it is essential that that judgment be trained to act promptly and accurately.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

HOW PARTS OF IT WORK.

Prohibition has made highly profitable several lines of business, some of which are legitimate and some not so legitimate. To the last category, of course, belong the Bootleggers. The legitimate Trade is in Ginger Ale, White Rock and kindred waters and the manufacture and sale of Candy.

It may intrigue the imagination somewhat to figure out why Canada Dry Ginger Ale has suddenly since 1920 acquired such a tremendous business, so great that notwithstanding great increase in factory equipment, the Company is unable to keep up with its orders. That is another story. It is easy to understand the candy consumption. No one drinking that which contains alcohol cares a single hoot about candy. When the bibulous one ceases to use wines, beers, ales and whiskeys, he undoubtedly, acquires a desire for the Sweets. Never before was so much per capita candy used as now in the United States.

For the first time in the history, a candy manufacturer is building refrigerator cars for its exclusive use. Curtis Candy Co. Chicago, has ordered 200 cars, of which 50 are already in service. The Company is using cars for shipping its Baby Ruth candy bars. The day the bars are made some 3,500,000 of them are shipped.

It is given out that production of these bars amounts to 1,000,000 annually and is equal to one-tenth the total annual production of all confectionary in the United States. For this tremendous production the Curtis Candy Co. uses 45,000,000 pounds of shelled peanuts, 20,000,000 pounds of corn syrup, 18,000,000 pounds of cane sugar, 30,000,000 pounds of chocolate coating and 6,000,000 pounds of milk. It requires the production of 12,500 acres of corn, 46,500 acres of peanuts and milk from 5,000 cows.

Perhaps candy is better than alcohol, but Intemperance is Intemperance.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE SMART ONE

He knew he couldn't drink and keep his head.
And so he called for ginger ale instead.

His father told him once when he was young:
"He says no foolish words who holds his tongue."

His elder brother was accounted smart,
In every sport he played a leading part.

The smart one laughed at duties, which he shirked,
And thought it silly that his brother worked.

"Bill isn't very claver," he would say,
"He thinks he can't afford a night of play.

"He goes to bed and sleeps because he thinks
Good rest is better than a round of drinks.

"He doesn't preach or aim to be a saint,
But only dull wits practice self-restraint."

Far down the years the smart one smarter grew,
Squandered his strength and with it every sou.

But Bill, the quiet plodder, stitch by stitch,
Sewed up his money and today is rich.

"Yes," says the smart one, "Bill a fortune struck,
I had the brains, but he had all the luck."

THE FATHERHOOD OF GOD—Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him. Psalm 103:13.

PRAYER: O Love, that wilt not let me go, I rest my weary soul in Thee.

CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

TOILERS OF THE SEA

The sea has always held me. To sit on the beach and watch the big waves come rolling in, one after the other, tirelessly reiterating the power of the deep water, is so fascinating a fashion of idling that it is difficult for me to tear myself away.

Sea tales enthrall me. Perhaps it is partly because they were the first stories I ever heard. My father had been a seafaring man, and on the Kansas prairie he was lonesome for the salt water. He used to talk of the sea and of storms, and I used to listen in wonder. Now I write pirate tales, and there is none of my writing from which I derive greater satisfaction and joy.

There was a true tale of the sea in the newspapers recently, and I have read a more thrilling story. When the Robert E. Lee struck a hidden reef in Cape Cod bay, miracles of labor were performed by those brave coast guardsmen!

Imagination pictured the great coastwise liner, portholes aglow, driving on through the storm, and the coast guardsmen ashore sending up rockets and flares to warn her that she was headed for the rocks. What tragedy! She struck, despite the warnings.

You know the story of that terrific night, during which the rescuers launched their dory again and again, and finally succeeded in getting alongside. Every passenger was saved. That was a proud record for the lifesavers.

And then the return to shore begins, and the little dory is overturned by an angry breaker. The tired heroes have saved a hundred and fifty lives, and all their strength is gone. They cannot save themselves. Three of them go down to death, their work well done.

Thatw as an epic spectacle, and it should be held in the memory of the race of men for many a day. I hope there will be a beautiful monument to these Americans at Plymouth, where so many of our country's heroic memories center. These boys are worthy of the soil and the sea that nurtured them.

Speaking of sea tales. There is a new book called "Ecola" which contains three rather good stories of salt water. It is by Jacland Marmur, and is the author's first book. Though it lacks something of the qualities of greatness, it is full of the spirit of the wild sea.

"BE-HI RECORD"

Everyone will have an equal chance at the two presents the Be-Hi Staff is giving away with the sale of the next issue of the "Record". It is necessary, however, to buy a paper to get a chance; and, if two chances are desired, two papers must be acquired.

In the upper right hand corner of the Easter paper, in the little square "ear," will be found a number. Each paper will have a different number, and each number a different paper. Perhaps it will be wondered what numbers and papers have to do with prizes.

To come down to brass tacks the Easter issue of the Be-Hi is to be sold Monday and Tuesday at 2:45 in the high school auditorium, numbers will be drawn, and when the two lucky ones have been decided upon the persons in possession of Be-Hi with corresponding numbers will be presented with worthwhile gifts.

BASKETBALL PICTURES

With the placing of the basketball pictures in the trophy case came a host of admirers and prospective buyers. There are pictures of both the boys' and girls' teams. Oliver Engle basketball manager, is taking orders for the photos.

CLASSIFICATION TESTS

Last Friday eighth graders all over the state were given classification examinations. These tests were an hour long. In the examination such a variety of subjects were covered that the results are considered a fair estimate as to the student's ability. A similar test had been submitted to Bessemer eighth graders in November and the results of the two tests compared very favorably.

Through a knowledge of the pupil's ability the instructors are able to judge whether or not the student is doing his best work or whether he is lagging.

The tests were sent out from the office of the county superintendent.

SEVENTH GRADE PARTY

Never before in the history of Bessemer high have the seventh graders demanded that they too should have a party. This year's class not only asked for the privilege but having obtained permission produced a real live party.

Although the time limit ranged between the hours of 7 and 10, yet within that time there was not one moment when the halls were not ringing with the joyous laughter of the seventh grade live wires.

Games were the entertainment of the evening and after a light lunch was served the 52 classmates went singing along to their respective homes.

CHAPEL

Several types of entertainment made up the chapel program for last Thursday. There were musical selections, jokes, readings and even a new dance step or two.

For the second part of the porgram Mr. Martin was fortunate enough to secure Mr. Calahan, a leader in the Boy Scout movement. Mr. Calahan's speech was especially interesting in view of the fact that the present time Bessemer is reorganizing its own Boy Scout troop.

After Mr. Calahan's talk Mr. Chilton of the Chamber of Commerce of New Castle gave an inspiring talk about "Leadership".

Chapel this week is under the supervision of Miss Martin.

ACTIVITIES

According to the schedule laid out by the various activity teachers interest will not have a chance to lag even to the very last day.

The Arts and Crafts club is especially active. Trays are being finished, artificial flowers made and lamp shades designed. The next big piece of work is to be a lamp shade made of material to which crystal beads are to be added.

TRIP TO SLIPPERY ROCK

Accepting the rule that it is always courteous to accept invitations, the seniors are seriously considering a trip to Slippery Rock Teachers college to see the health demonstration. The demonstration is to be given Friday evening and it is likely that 16 seniors will go.

BOY SCOUTS

Troop No. 48, consisting of Boy Scouts from Bessemer, had their first real meeting Tuesday evening. Tenderfoot tests were given to the newcomers and first and second class tests were taken by those who have been former scouts.

BESSEMER BAND

Weekly practices are being conducted quite regularly by the Bessemer band. Every Monday evening as one passes the Bessemer high school he is apt to hear weird sounds issuing from the variety of instruments used. Plans are being made to present another program sometime in the future.

OPERETTA

With the coming of spring we begin looking forward to the grade operettas. Next Tuesday evening we are to be entertained with the first of the season.

The kindergarten and the first and second grades are planning an entertainment which will be pleasing to all. Although the kiddies of the kindergarten have been in school such a short time yet they are going to make their first public appearance and sing a song or present a game.

Perhaps you have not heard of the "Toy Orchestra". Well, it will doubtlessly be one of the sensations of the evening. The instruments arrived some time ago and since their arrival the first graders have been busy tuning up. These little tots will also present Springtime Flowers and several old colonial dances, done in costume.

"In a Florist's Window" is the operetta, which is to be presented by the second grade. The scene is laid in a florist's shop. As a group of florists sing "All Sold Out" they are encountered by a host of little green bugs who quickly tell them of the damage they could do in a florist's shop.

Just as the shop keepers were wondering how they could satisfy their customers, a chorus of roses, daffodils, columbines, pansies and violets enters. The mustard seed and birds also come in to help the florists so everyone is happy but the poor little bugs.

TRACK SEASON

Having successfully gone through the football and basketball seasons the athletes of Bessemer high will now turn their thoughts to track.

For the first time in the history of the school the track team will be under the supervision of two coaches. Mr. Allen will take care of the sprints and field contests while Mr. Winters coaches the distance men.

Although prospects are not as bright as in past years, due to the loss of good track men, yet several shining lights are still available, and if the students patriotically turn out a fair team will be presented to our opponents.

Many Men: Many Minds

By IDAH McGLONE GIBSON

Certainly there is as great divergence of opinion among women as among men.

One rather expects different races, different sects, different classes, different types to think differently.

Just what bias of brain however, makes two people descend from the same ancestry, born of the same parents, growing up in the same environment, educated in the same schools, reading the same newspapers and attending the same church have diametrically opposite minds on many subjects?

For instance a part of my family believes that prohibition is a curtailing of personal liberty while I am just as certain that personal liberty taken in the sense of individual liberty as against the voice of the majority, means a flouting of the Constitution of the United States.

Another member of my family—a very brilliant woman of far-seeing and logical mind—is a devout Christian Scientist while I have never been able to drown my material belief in the purely spiritual dogma.

Another sister has given much of her time, energy and efficient service to the Republican party while I am just as devouted to the cause of Democracy that Jackson defined and Wilson carried to the perfection of practical idealism.

We both agree on prohibition, feminism, art, literature and the general ethics of life, but politics is the rock on which we split and go our separate ways with much discussion and sometimes a little feeling of impatience that we cannot see the affairs of our country from the same angle.

Why is this so?

Each of us has had the same advantage and each gives to the other the admiration she desrves for perspicuity and courage but neither of use can get the other's viewpoint at all when we look into the political arena.

If one finds this difference of opinion in the same family one can easily excuse the difference of opinion among those of totally different environment, education and racial convictions.

Memo: Eben Holden said that it was differences of opinion that makes horse races.

WOUNDED AND SICK MARINES ARE HOME FROM NICARAGUA

NEW YORK, March 29.—The first contingent of sick and wounded marines, casualties in the Nicaraguan campaign against the rebel Sandino, have arrived in New York, it was learned Wednesday.

Seven wounded men and four malaria victims returned from the tropics on the transport St. Mihiel. They were in command of Sergeant Charles Jones, grizzled veteran of many campaigns.

EVA FAY EXPLAINS HER KNOWLEDGE OF MYSTICISM

Eva Fay, "High Priestess of Mysticism" and marvel of the twentieth century, credits her years spent in the bamboo structures of learning in the Orient under teachers of the occult with her power to read your inner most thoughts. Mrs. Fay was born in this country but as a baby was taken to East India where she played around the shrines of the Yogi and Mahatma, as soon as she was old enough to go out alone. Later she proved that through her deep study of philosophy and science she was worthy to take up the Occult sciences and was admitted to the colleges in bamboo huts. Priests in their flowing Oriental garb and with their mysterious ways taught her the power to pierce the veil covering the future and enabling her to accurately foretell events months before they were to happen. After she married John T. Fay she moved back to Boston and later to her villa up on the Hudson river where she spends her summers studying. Mrs. Fay appears as the feature of the program at The Capitol next week here, and answers the questions put to her by the audience, with special ladies matinee on Tuesday. Wonderful pictures and other stage acts.

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

A TUSSLE WITH AN EEL

Peter saw that the Kingfishers were really worried about their carelessness in not warning him to beware of fishbones. He hastened to relieve their feelings.

"Pardon you! Of course I will. I shouldn't have said anything about it in the first place if it hadn't happened so quickly. My hand hardly hurts at all now, and since no great harm is done I am rather glad that I ran into the old fishbone. If I hadn't I might have left your home without ever guessing that you built your nest on a foundation of fishbones.

"You Kingfishers are a sensible couple, taking care of your babies the way you do—building a house that will last as long as you need it and using things that you have at hand to make it solid."

"Thank you, boy." Kingfisher was greatly pleased. "And we are a happy couple too. Do you know, I am getting hungry again. How about you, wife?"

"Well, I could nibble a nice fat minnow." Mrs. Kingfisher laughed. "You know what an appetite I have, my dear."

"Then I am going fishing again," declared her husband. "Coming with me, two-legs?"

"To be sure. Goodbye, Mrs. Kingfisher. I am having a fine time. Gracious! What a hurry your husband is in. I shall have to run to keep up with him. I shall come again sometime, if I may."

The last words were called back over his shoulder. Peter was hastening down the tunnel trying to catch Mr. Kingfisher, and in a very short while indeed he found himself out again upon the bank.

Mr. Kingfisher took up his former perch upon the pole and watched the water beneath him for an unwary victim to swim within his reach. It didn't seem longer than a minute before he took his little fly into the air and dived into the river. But this time he returned with—not a fish, but—a wriggling eel in his beak.

What a time Kingfisher did have with that troublesome eel. It twisted and it turned and it wriggled and seemed to be flopping in all directions at once. Peter expected to see Kingfisher drop it, but the bird had no such idea. He flew from his perch over to the bank. Upon the bank was a moss covered rock and flying upon this rock Kingfisher began to hop about as if he had suddenly gone mad.

But with every hop he beat the head of the poor eel upon the rock. "Bang! Bang! Whack! Whack!" At last the eel stopped squirming and hung limp and still in the bird's beak. Then Kingfisher stopped dancing.

"There!" remarked he, with a satisfied air. "I have finished him. Wife is fond of eel meat and she shall have this fellow for dinner. But I am all tired out. I shall have to take a nap after this tussle. I doubt if I fish any more today.

"Goodby, boy. Wife is waiting, so I must hurry. I shall keel over if I don't get home soon." Breathless but victorious, off flew Kingfisher. And the boy did notice that the fellow's feathers were flat and his crested head drooped as if he was quite worn out.

Next—"Miss Phoebe Returns to Bird Box Row."

Lexington Kentucky Greatly Excited As "Lindy" Lands Plane

(International News Service)

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 29.—Col. Charles Lindbergh after landing in a field near here late yesterday afternoon was preparing to take off this morning for another unannounced destination.

The famous colonel's arrival was entirely unexpected and there was much excitement in the city last night. The last time he was here was a number of years ago before his trans-Atlantic flight.

He refused to appear in public and spent the night at the home of Dr. Scott Breckenridge, brother of Col. Henry Breckenridge, his personal attorney and adviser.

Passengers in his Ryan plane besides Col. Breckenridge, were Maj. Thomas Lanphier, commander of the First Pursuit Squadron, Selfridge Field, Mt. Clemens, Mich.; Capt. E. S. Land, assistant chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics of the navy and O. R. Root, Jr., 14 year old stepson of Col Breckenridge.

Col. Lindbergh refused to talk to newspapermen but it was reported that his party would fly to St. Louis today.

Although the ticket system was discontinued by the Pennsylvania-Ohio Electric company almost a year ago, some street car riders have not yet entirely used their supply and some patrons still use tickets to pay car fare. The token system is in effect here.

The ticket system was abandoned for economical reasons. It had been anticipated that the tickets would have all been used up months ago. Tickets are acceptable for fare.

and placed on the long wooden runaway specially built for the take-off. Mechanics had given the machine a final grooming and covered all parts with paraffin to keep the formation of sleet during the flight down to a minimum.

Field Is Soggy

It had rained during the night, however, and when Koehl, Baron Von Huenefeld and relief pilot Arthur Spindler came on the field, they found the ground in an extremely soggy condition.

After scanning late weather reports, which were anything but favorable, the fliers reluctantly announced the postponement of the flight.

Captain Koehl, in announcing he would not start today, said he did not think the soggy field would permit a perfect take-off of the heavy plane. The Bremen with its full load of fuel and three occupants weighs about five tons.

Unless reports from Newfoundland indicate rising temperatures there, it appeared likely today that when the fliers do start, they will take the southern shipping lane course direct to New York and thus avoid the Canadian coast entirely.

Captain Koehl has been deeply impressed by Colonel Lindbergh's stressing of sleet dangers in his book "We." If he shies south of the "Great Circle" he will have been the first trans-Atlantic flier to do so.

Dublin, March 29.—The departure of the German monoplane Bremen upon a trans-Atlantic flight was postponed indefinitely today owing to continued bad weather. Capt. Herman Koehl, the pilot, and Baron Von Huenefeld, financial backer of the enterprise, said they hoped to get away tomorrow morning, but would not hop off until weather conditions over the ocean were safe. So far there has been no suggestion that the flight would be abandoned.

During the morning a stiff west wind was blowing and fog made visibility very poor. The weather forecaster held out no hope that conditions would become favorable during the day.

"We are determined to fly—sometime," said Baron Von Huenefeld.

MENU HINT

A plate of potato soup is a good start for luncheon. With a salad, or a dish of rhubarb sauce and some good whole wheat bread and butter, it makes a very good luncheon indeed. Don't peel your rhubarb at this time of the year. Wash and cut it up with the peeling on and cook with enough water to make it juicy.

Potato Soup Toasted Bread Strips
Rhubarb or other Sauce
Whole Wheat Bread and Butter
Milk

Today's Recipes

Potato Soup—Two and one-half cups raw potatoes, one quart milk, one-half onion or one-half teaspoon onion salt, one-eighth teaspoon celery salt, two tablespoons flour, three tablespoons butter or butter substitute, pepper. Put the milk in the upper part of a double boiler and add the sliced onion or onion salt to it. Put in the celery salt and green pepper, if desired. Let this milk heat above hot water for a half hour. This heating brings out the flavor of the onion and celery salt and flavors the milk without giving an unpleasantly strong taste.

Peel the potatoes and cut in small pieces. Cook in boiling salted water. When the potatoes are soft, rice back into the pan. We are assuming that the water in which the potatoes cooked has all been absorbed by the potatoes so that there is no waste of mineral salts. Add the strained hot milk to the potatoes. Mix well. Blend the butter and flour over the fire and add this roux to the potato milk mixture. It should immediately thicken the liquid. Let the mixture boil and then season to taste.

You cannot be attractive without a clear skin

EVERYBODY wants to be attractive. It is a great and just ambition. But no one can be attractive without a clear skin—you know that.

Do you realize the importance of pure, rich blood in preserving the health, and that the source of most skin disorders is in the blood?

Remove the cause, which is not in the skin itself, and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

S.S.S. is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs, and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

When your system is filled with rich, red blood, you don't have that tired, languid feeling when you awake in the morning. Instead, you feel refreshed, ready to meet the world.

Your appetite is keen—you enjoy work or play—your skin is clear, cheeks naturally rosy.

All this because rich, red blood builds and sustains the body.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

Youthful Slayer Given Life Term For Brutal Crime

Alvin Hess, 16, Found Guilty Of Murder By Jury; Recommends Life Term

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, March 29.—Life!

Silent and unrepentant, Alvin Hess, 16, sat in the county jail today, convicted of first degree murder by a jury of nine men and three women who recommended a life sentence, waiting for "the ride" when prison bars will close around him for the remainder of his life.

A little more than three dollars was the amount he and Robert Stevens, 14, who will face trial Monday, found in the pockets of the "ragged stranger" which they were said to have confessed to murdering on the banks of the Monongahela river last September.

One of the youngest defendents ever arraigned for murder in Allegheny county, he heard witnesses testify that he knocked his victim to the ground with a heavy club, crushed his skull with a stone, robbed the battered corpse and then attempted to prevent others discovering the body as it lay in a thicket beside the river.

More like a hardened criminal than a boy not yet out of his teens, he remained calm throughout the trial, and calmly heard the verdict which will send him behind prison bars for the remainder of his life.

And the crowd which filled the court room remained silent as it listened to the verdict. A warning had been given before the jury filed in that there must be no demonstration regardless of the decision and there was none.

Insanity Plea Fails.

Counsel for the young prisoners had attempted to establish an insanity defense. Witnesses swore that the boy had been insane since his skull was fractured in a coasting accident, that he "talked queer" and played with dolls.

Then he was placed on the stand and calmly told the story of the murder, admitting all that he was charged with. The defense brought forward a few more witnesses to show that the boy was abnormal and rested its case. The prosecution brought forward its authorities to show that Hess could differentiate between right and wrong.

The jury deliberated on his fate for two hours and five minutes.

Attorney A. L. Cramer, defense counsel appointed by the court, announced that he would file a motion for new trial within the four days allowed him.

STRICKEN SUDDENLY

Almost daily we hear of it—the story of some man, probably a friend, suddenly cut off in the midst of his usefulness, in the very prime of life. That's what high blood pressure and heart trouble will do—snap off life without warning. All due to our abnormal living habits which put too great a strain upon the vital organs, especially the liver.

The liver becoming weak and sluggish fails to cleanse the blood of the poisons formed in food waste. The whole system then becomes toxic, with stomach, kidneys, heart and blood vessels affected.

The liver, especially at middle life, needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as physicians today know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a great natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning, so essential to health and vitality. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing ten drops of pure ox gall. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and one or two days' use will prove a revelation. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, ask for Dioxol.

Free Test Take this ad to the druggist named below and he will give you a free sample of Dioxol tablets. Try them yourself. See the splendid, quick results. One trial of Dioxol and you will want a full package!

You Need More Than A Smile

By Edna Wallace Hopper

It's pleasant to know that your glistening white teeth fascinate and allure. But we who make an earnest study of health and youth preservation demand more than cleanliness. The enamel and gums must be protected.

Edna Wallace Hopper as she looks today

To assure the greatest precaution against wearing away of precious enamel I have had to understand personally the effects of the various ingredients of the tooth paste I use, which is called Quindent, the "five-in-one" dentifrice.

I am convinced that it not only cleanses and polishes the teeth perfectly, but it purifies the breath, and, above all, counteracts the ever-present acids. This last protection is due to one of its most valuable properties—milk of magnesia, which I used to use separately as a mouth wash before expert scientists had produced Quindent.

Quindent is not a biting, sharp dentifrice. Its action is sure and mild. The taste is pleasant and I advise you to leave a slight coating of it on the gums and tongue which is effective for hours.

You can obtain Quindent at any toilet counter, 50 cents for a large tube.

NEW-American Edition of STUDEBAKER'S ERSKINE SIX

$795 f. o. b. factory

NOW for the first time a low-priced car has been developed which you can drive at 40-mile speed the day you buy it—the New American Edition of the Erskine Six.

No other car in the Erskine price class is so finely built that it may be driven at 40-mile speed when new. This is a symbol of the extra years of care-free service built into this quality automobile.

Quality Throughout

Studebaker's advanced engineering is evident in every detail of the New Erskine Six. Design is scientifically sound. High quality materials are exactingly tested. Production is held to precision standards hitherto found only in the most expensive cars. And finally every Erskine Six in the course of building is checked and re-checked by hundreds of the most rigid inspections.

This new Erskine Six is the champion performer of its class—conclusively demonstrated when a stock Erskine sedan averaged better than 54 miles an hour in a 24-hour test. This set a record never equaled by any stock car under $1000.

Bigger—More Powerful

But even these authentic facts and figures cannot tell you the story of engineering triumph represented in this new American Edition of the Erskine Six. A bigger—roomier—more powerful Erskine. Comfortable—spacious—doors nearly a yard wide—rear seats 4 feet wide—62 miles an hour—nimble acceleration—thrifty of gas and oil—amplified-action 4-wheel brakes. And remember this car is Studebaker built and that speaks volumes for its quality and dependability. Test it out—NOW!

Flying Yacht Of Howard Vanderbilt Among Number Destroyed As Boat House Burns

ESTIMATE LOSS AT OVER $200,000

(International News Service)

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y., March 29.—Harold Vanderbilt's $60,000 flying yacht was among the millionaires' yachts destroyed or damaged in a fire that practically destroyed the Purdy Boat corporation plant here early today. Scores of speed boats, the water front property of wealthy Long Islanders, and the extensive buildings of the Port Washington Yacht club were threatened by the flames which, fanned by a strong west wind, spread rapidly.

The total loss will be about $200,000, it is believed. A dozen or more boats were burned.

The fire started in the Purdy boathouse about midnight. Large quantities of lumber, paint and varnish in the Purdy boathouse afforded ready fuel and within a few minutes the boathouse was a mass of fire.

After a hard fight, firemen and hundreds of volunteers brought the blaze under control.

Three large boats belonging to Carl G. Fischer were reported to have been burned.

The whole town of Port Washington was plunged into darkness owing to the burning out of the electric wires. It is thought that the fire started through a short circuit.

The Vanderbilt flying boat was the most luxurious machine of its kind in the world—an air yacht, capable of cruising on water and in air at a speed of 115 miles an hour with six persons on board.

Hunting Driver Of Sedan Which Injured Youth

Police Say Driver Refused To Take Lad To Doctor

Police are seeking to secure the license number of a Dodge sedan, the driver of which declined to take a boy, Philip Schuster, aged 13, 806 Porter street, to a physician, after seriously injuring him on the left leg.

The accident occurred at East North and North Mercer street about 4:10 p. m. Wednesday at the east side of the signal light on North Mercer street, and in the excitement the boy and others failed to get the license number of the car.

It is likely that there may be someone who saw the accident who did get the license number, and the police would appreciate it if this number is turned in to them, in order that the person responsible for the injury of the boy may be required to care for the injured lad.

The youth was seated on the rear of the automobile of William Bessell of Wampum, which was going west on East North street. The boy's leg was swinging out over the rear of the machine. Mr. Bessell was waiting for the signal to turn green so that he might proceed, having stopped for the red light.

The Dodge sedan was going in the same direction and ran into the Bessell car, hitting and cutting the leg of the boy severely as it was caught between the two machines. The injury was below the knee.

The boy on being injured went to the Dodge sedan and got in and asked the man driving to take him to a doctor. The driver replied that he should have the driver of the other car do this, and when the boy got out at his suggestion, drove away.

The boy then acquainted Mr. Bessell, who did not know of the injury until then, of what had happened and he took the boy to a physician, who had to take several stitches in the wound.

If the driver of the sedan can be located he will be ordered into the police station to make an adjustment of the case.

FIND CONSTABLE NOT GUILTY OF EXTORTION

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, March 29.—Found not guilty on a charge of extortion, Constable W. O. Finley, Mifflin township, today was ordered to pay half the costs of the case by a jury which deliberated 18 hours.

The charges against him arose out of a raid on the restaurant of George Xeros by Finley and five prohibition agents last January when gambling devices and liquor were seized.

Xeros was unable to furnish bond and Finley was said to have agreed to accept $175 cash for the prisoner's appearance. Xeros failed to appear and a warrant was issued for Finley's arrest.

At a hearing Feb. 11 the money was returned and Xeros held for court on the liquor charge and fined $50 for keeping gambling devices.

Dull—Unfit

Watch a sparkling drink change things in an hour

Often men and women rise in the morning feeling dull and unfit, because the system is clogged. The poisons and wastes depress them.

There are long ways and short ways to a remedy, but the shortest and pleasantest is this:

Drink a glass of water on rising, either hot or cold. Add a little "Epsonade." It will make a sparkling, pleasant drink, that will flush the intestines. Note the radical change in an hour.

The results come from acids derived from lemon and grapes. And they are at your command every hour of the day.

Learn what "Epsonade" means to you. How soon it can change conditions. It may save you countless hours of depression. All druggists supply "Epsonade" at small cost.

Woman Goes To Jail So Husband Can Keep Children

BEAVER, Pa., March 29.—So her husband might support their six children, Mrs. Victoria Peirce, thirty-seven, of New Brighton, has gone to jail in his place.

Julius Peirce pleaded guilty to making and keeping moonshine and got six months. Peirce asked for mercy because of the suffering that his incarceration would cause his family.

"If your wife comes in and pleads I'll release you," Judge Frank E. Reader told the father.

Mrs. Peirce appeared, pleaded guilty and took all the blame. She was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $200.

The woman appeared satisfied. She said she did not want to see her children suffer.

Have You Discovered

Where the Thrifty People of New Castle Are Shopping?

HIGGINS list of transactions increased 30,000 last year which is evidence that hundreds of customers are finding this store a good place to trade.

Why do they shop at Higgins? Because thousands of women have come to know that with our modern stock control they are continually seeing fresh, new merchandise at surprisingly low prices.

Further than that, they know that it is easier to shop here because the salespeople are far above the average. They are experienced and you can depend upon what they tell you.

BLUE SUNOCO GASOLINE
SUNOCO MOTOR OILS
An Open Challenge

A Worthy Running Mate with BLUE SUNOCO

While Blue Sunoco is an outstanding achievement as a motor fuel, the improved golden-colored Sunoco Motor Oil equals its sister product as a remarkable contribution to the smooth, trouble-free operation of automobiles.

Good-bye Carbon Troubles

The combination of these two Sunocos will quickly and forever rid your car of hard carbon troubles. Sunoco Motor Oil is so pure that no hard carbon can form, and should hard carbon already be present when you switch to the Sunocos, the knock will be eliminated.

Each Sunoco is a leader. Used together they are without an equal. No other oil will do a better lubricating job in your motor.

Modern equipment plus efficiency methods enable us to sell this quality oil at 25c per quart, which is less than its high quality justifies.

. . . Test in your own car the vast difference in gasolines . . . as follows—

When your tank is practically empty, fill up with BLUE Sunoco. Don't change carburetor adjustment. Run for a week or more on BLUE Sunoco exclusively, or for a sufficient time to become thoroughly accustomed to the behavior of your car, in traffic, on hills, in straight-aways.

Here's the Challenge

Then with your tank practically empty, choose any other gasoline or motor fuel, and run for a week or two on this, with the same thorough observation of its performance.

We'll rest our case on this demonstration. The freedom from knocking; the smooth-flowing power of BLUE Sunoco on hills or in heavy traffic; and considerably fewer gear shifts will unconsciously raise your standard of driving. The inadequacy of other gasolines will be apparent when you try them after becoming accustomed to BLUE Sunoco.

BLUE Sunoco is a pure petroleum product, non-poisonous and harmless. Its unexcelled quality is obtained by careful and scientific methods of manufacture rather than by the addition of foreign substances.

General Office Bowlers Here For Contest

Shenango Plant Teams To Play And Dine Pittsburgh Men

History tells us that the battle of Balaklava was considerable of a scrap, but there will be some new battling history written tonight when the bowlers of the General Offices of Pittsburgh and the bowlers of the Shenango plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company get together tonight.

Every year the two teams play a home and home series and this year the first engagement was played off in Pittsburgh with the General Office men cleaning the alleys and the Shenango men at the same time.

The return game is played tonight and Raymond McBride, sometimes known as Mick, who is general chairman of the evening, allows as how his men are out for blood, buckets of it with no holds barred. In an effort to enervate the Pittsburgh bowlers, the local men have planned a luncheon for them in the mill dining room at noon and a dinner tonight in The Castleton. The idea is to feed them until they are too uncomfortable to bowl and the waiters in The Castleton have been instructed to urge the Pittsburghers to eat plenty. Mick doesn't care for expenses, he has so many of them.

D. S. Pyle, general manager of the Shenango plant, will be the toastmaster of the dinner tonight and the speeches on the program are being designed to gas the opposition, so that they will be in no shape to roll strikes and spares.

Are You "Robbing Peter to Pay Paul?"

IF you're doing without the glasses you need—the glasses you realize will give the help your eyes need, then you are robbing yourself of health, your future vision and efficiency—for the sake of a "false pride" or else for the price a pair of glasses would cost! Think of that!

If your eyes MUST be overworked in your daily tasks, and they are beginning to "fight back" at the imposition on them with headaches, nervousness, sleeplessness—be alarmed! Provide yourself with the glasses you need—for your health's sake—and do it today.

Clues To Identify Of 'Killer' Lacking

Unless Operator Can Be Found Hit-And-Kill Autoist May Escape

Unless some person comes forward with a clue as to the identity of the hit-and-kill auto thief who drove a car into Mary Ellen Brown, 76, causing her death at Mount Chestnut, he may escape punishment.

Today state highway patrolmen stated that as yet no motorist has informed them of having given a "lift" to any person who might have driven the car which was stolen from ex-Coroner Dengler at Butler.

According to County Detective Frank Wigdon, Butler county, the auto was stolen after 6 o'clock and the time of the fatality occurred about 8 o'clock near Mt. Chestnut, Butler highway.

As the car was ditched a mile from the accident, headed toward New Castle, it was believed the hit-and-kill auto thief had fled from the car and received a "lift" toward New Castle.

Jumps From Bed Gas Presses Heart

"I had stomach gas so bad I had to get up nights because of the pressure on my heart. I used Adlerika and have been entirely relieved."—R. F. Krueger.

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc., (known as Adlerika), has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often poisoned the system for months. Second, Adlerika clears all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach trouble. And in addition, Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause neuritis, rheumatism, etc.

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, writes: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and bacilli."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated."

It will astonish you the great amounts of poisonous matter Adlerika brings out—matter you would never believe was in your system. In chronic constipation, gas bloating, sour stomach and sick headache, just ONE spoonful Adlerika brings wonderful relief. At leading druggists.

Sold in New Castle by Love & Megown and other druggists.

Solicitor Ordered Out Of New Castle

Offering a proposition to the citizens of New Castle which, on the face of it, is perhaps the best in the country, agents for a national motor culb have been soliciting in the city, says Bernard N. Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor club.

But, unfortunately, the proposition is a 'gyp" scheme. The solicitor was apprehended last evening and forced to leave the city, says Hanlon.

Mr. Hanlon suggests that when anyone is approached by a solicitor who is selling membership in any motor club that before signing the contract the citizen should get in touch with the New Castle Motor club.

ne largest stock of coats ever purchased by Neiman's at any one time has been received for a mammoth record-breaking sale which they announce as beginning tomorrow, Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Every garment is vouched for as being perfect goods manufactured for selling the Spring season of 1928. Neiman's assert that the coats were bought at unusual concessions, and will be sold to the public at equal savings.

The quantity of coats in this purchase accounts for the fact that manufacturers were willing to make unheard of concessions in order to unload their surplus stock. Neiman's are always ready to take advantage of market opportunities.

Lawrence county women are certainly lucky to be able to buy such high quality brand new spring coats at the prices we understand Neiman's have set.

Last Monday the first of the coats began to come in from the manufacturers in New York. As the coats reached the store each was thoroughly inspected to make certain that they fully maintained the high standard of quality which Neiman's coats always maintain. When found satisfactory they were marked and put in stock for you to choose from in the mammoth record breaking sale event tomorrow, Friday.

History Repeats

Event Last Spring Great Success

Neiman's made a similar coat purchase last Spring at a time when the market offered great price concessions on coats. Their coat sale last Spring established a precedent for supreme value giving.

Their purchase and sale last Spring was a great success, and it still remains in the mind of the public, the wonderful values they obtained during that sale.

The crowds were so large at their coat sale last Spring that they were unable, even with their extra help, to wait on all the customers. But preparations are being made to handle even a larger crowd at their coat sale tomorrow, Friday.

Did You See Neiman's Window Display?

Neiman's have their windows trimmed for their great coat sale. With so many coats now in their stocks and such a variety of styles it would be impossible for them to display them all. But from the ones now on display in their windows you will be able to see what beautiful coats they are, and the low prices asked for them.

THE WEATHERMAN SAYS "WARMER"

Miss Spring in all her glory is overdue, but she's coming and when she does—Oh—watch out—You'll need a new Spring Coat sure as anything. Better hurry to Neiman's great coat sale tomorrow, Friday, at once. And you'll save money for the values Neiman's offer tomorrow are not to be found elsewhere.

This inspection was planned especially for women and girls who for any reason might not have time to spend selecting a coat tomorrow.

Lightning Strikes Hay Lift Of Barn; Doesn't Catch Fire

MERCER, Pa., March 29.—A bolt of lightning of sufficient intensity to split the rafters of his barn defied all precedents by passing through a mow of hay without igniting it, is the unusual story related by County Auditor J. W. Black as happening at his barn Monday evening.

At that time a heavy electric storm swept Mercer county.

Mr. Black was within two feet of the spot where the bolt passed into the ground. His most valuable horse was the same distance in the other direction.

The county official reports being stunned for a few moments.

The lightning, hitting the barn roof, traveled along the hay track in the mow, coming down a road passing directly through the mow, thence by a post to the ground.

SAYS HE NEVER FELT BETTER IN WHOLE LIFETIME

Conductor Credits Wonderful Change To Ten Herbs; Suffered Many Years.

"I felt so bad that I was on the point of giving up my job," was the statement of Mr. Fred Coudriet, 615 Freeland Street, South Hill, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc.,

MR. FRED COUDRIET

30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating the new herbal compound, Ten Herbs. "When I read in the papers how much good Ten Herbs was doing others, I started taking it, and I have never felt better in my life than I do now," continued Mr. Coudriet, popular conductor, who has been employed by the Pittsburgh Railways Company for 26 years.

"For the last 10 or 15 years I was troubled with my stomach. Food did not digest properly. I always had a craving appetite, but was afraid to eat—I have gone a whole week without eating. When I did eat, I would fill with gas, and bloat terribly. I was constipated and had to take physics continually. My liver was sluggish, and I lost all ambition. I think my kidneys caused the awful pains across my back. In fact, I was just about in a down-and-out condition.

"Ten Herbs certainly made a big change in me. I had not finished the second bottle when I noticed this change. My bowels became regular and my liver and kidneys more active. The pains left my back and I seemed to have new life. My appetite returned, and I could eat anything without fear of gas or bloating.

"My son, who is 20 years old, had ailments similar to mine. When he saw what good results I was getting from Ten Herbs, he started using your medicine, and he got the same fine results that I did. Ten Herbs seems to purify the whole alimentary tract, so that Nature may respond to such purification by creating good digestion, more strength, purer blood, and real nerve vigor. My son and I gladly endorse Ten Herbs to the public, as it is a wonderful medicine."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine. Free sample given.

Small Postoffice Reported Robbed

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., March 29.—An unestimated amount of loot was secured by thieves who robbed the Sherbondy general store and post office at Normalville, a mountain hamlet near here, it was reported to police today.

Although the robbery occurred on Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning, word was delayed because the telephone wires from Normalville had been severed. A rural mail carrier brought news of the robbery.

The post office was not robbed, but the thieves took a metal box used as a safe, in which were valuable papers and a small sum of money.

Start New System Of Patrol Work At Senior High

A new system of patroling the halls of the senior high school has been placed in operation at that institution under the direction of the school's student council.

Although the new method was inaugurated but a short time ago officials at the school believe that it will prove a success and will eliminate some of the petty thievery that has been going on.

The system being used now covers the entire hall space of the school building. In the basement and on the main floor are three students, one at each end of both halls and one in the center, while on the two upper floors where the students do not pass so much, there are two monitors, one at each end of the hall.

These student-lookouts require permits of every student passing through the halls during any period of school. The teacher from whose room the student leaves must first sign the pass, prepared especially for this system, so that it may receive the "OK" of the student in the hall. When the student returns to that room he must return the pass in order that the teacher can see that the monitor in the hall "O. K'd" the student's passing.

The student receives the entire benefit from this system, even if it does cause both teacher and student a little bit of trouble. It is the students' personal belongings that are being watched, and if the method works out at the local institution, everyone who attends the school will reap the benefit.

OIL SOAKED CLOTHES CAUSE FATAL BURNS

OIL CITY, Pa., March 29.—His oil-soaked clothing catching fire from the flames of burning oil that had ignited from a bonfire used in thawing tools in pulling an oil well near Maple Shade, Burton Whitling, aged 19, of Maple Shade, was so badly burned that he died at the Oil City hospital.

Topic for the Week
"RELIGION AND POWER"

Thursday
"Union with Christ"

SCRIPTURE: Memory Verse: "He that abideth in me and I in him, the same beareth much fruit" (John 15:5).

Read: John 15:1-8.

MEDITATION: Jesus was always using common things to illustrate great truths. "I am the vine, ye are the branches." In this way he pictured the power that comes into every man's life that is in contact with His life. The branch does not struggle and toil that it may bear grapes. It has no need to do so. It need only remain in unbroken connection with the parent stem. So it is with people. The secret of larger attainment may, in part, be more labor for few of us strive as diligently as we might for excellence. But the more promising way is intimate association with Christ. If His Spirit is in our minds this day, we need not be concerned lest our conduct be not good. It will be good as inevitably as the branch of the good vine will bring forth good grapes.

PRAYER: O Thou, in whose life we find our life, through the gift of whose spirit we do our work and bear our burdens, grant us now the sense of Thy nearness. We would open our hearts freely to Thy spirit, our minds, to Thy law and our wills to Thy quickening energy. Dwell in us and make us fruitful. Amen.

ULTRA, ULTRA!

McMillan Given Monthly Pension

By GEORGE H. MANNING,
(Washington Correspondent of The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.—The name of Marshall L. McMillan, 435 Neshannock avenue, New Castle, Spanish-American war veteran, has been placed on the government pension rolls to receive a monthly pension of $20.

McMillan served as a sergeant in the Eighth United States Cavalry during the Spanish-American war. His claim was filed in the Pension Bureau by Congressman J. Howard Swick of Beaver Falls, who succeeded in having it approved.

FRUIT CROP NOT DAMAGED BY COLD WEATHER, REPORT

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG March 29.—Freezing weather which prevailed over the major portion of the state during the last 24 hours did not damage prospects for a good crop of apples and peaches, the Bureau of Markets of the Department of Agriculture said Wednesday.

Reports to the bureau from the larger growers said that there has not been enough warm weather to cause opening of buds during the present season.

Last year warm weather in March caused the early forcing of fruit buds which were severely injured by later frosts.

GIRL BREAKS AWAY FROM OFFICER AND MAKES HER ESCAPE

WHEELING, W. Va., March 29.—G. B. Pelley, Ohio county probation officer, is an efficient adornment of his position, but will never break any records on the running track. Pelley, yesterday, was forced to yield the palm to a 16-year-old girl prisoner whom he was escorting to the juvenile detention home after she had been caught shoplifting a pair of shoes in a department store here.

Almost in the shadow of the city-county building the girl broke away from the officer, easily distanced him in a running race down Sixteenth street and then disappeared. Pelley is still hunting for her.

Sales that surpass all records for this time of the year; outselling all other cars at many points, and gaining momentum at a speed that astounds the trade, the new Essex Super-Six is enjoying the greatest public ovation in 6-cylinder history.

The localities reported in the column to the left are not unusual, but typical, and they merely reflect the country-wide triumph. Everywhere dealers are reporting more than 100% greater sales than for the same period last year which was the previous record.

It is easily the greatest Essex Super-Six in history. It offers $200 to $300 more visible value than its great predecessor which outsold any other "Six" at or near the price by overwhelming margins.

Young People Accept Offer To Watch Charlie

So far five organizations of young people have accepted the invitation of Herbert Pearrs, manager of the Scottish Rite cathedral to be his guests at showings of this week's presentation, Charlie Chaplin in "The Circus".

Wednesday evening the Girl Reserves of the Y. W. C. A. attended the show. Tonight the boys clubs of the Y. M. C. A will march in a body to the cathedral. The boy scouts of the Lawrence county council will parade up Mill street Friday evening, headed by the drum and bugle corps of troop 15, to the cathedral, and Saturday afternoon the children from the Margaret L. Henry home will be entertained, being brought to the cathedral in busses furnished by the P. & O. Electric company. The Girl Scouts have also accepted Mr. Pearrs invitation, but as yet no date has been set.

PHALANX MEMBERS WILL MEET TONIGHT

There will be a business meeting of the Phalanx fraternity, newly organized young men's service club sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. This evening at 6:30, announces Paul Arow, president of the club.

Mr. Arow requests that every member of the club be present at the meeting for matters of importance will be discussed.

A challenge to doubters!

Make this personal health test and convince yourself!

THERE have been those who have doubted Postum's value to the average, normal man or woman—have called it "a drink for invalids". Then they made this personal health test. They drank Postum with their meals for thirty days in place of caffein beverages—and were convinced!

Instead of tossing restlessly through half the night, they slept soundly. Instead of dragging irritably through the day, they were steady, alert. Headaches and indigestion disappeared. They ate better—felt better—looked better!

Nor did they lose anything in mealtime enjoyment by this simple change in diet. They found Postum a hot, hearty drink with delights all its own. A drink with a rich, full-bodied flavor—a flavor millions prefer to that of any other drink!

Make the test yourself!

Don't wait for doctor's orders! Eliminate caffein from your diet now—make Postum your mealtime drink for thirty days! Then measure your physical gains! Like the others, you'll become a Postum user for life!

Your grocer has Postum in two forms—Instant Postum, made instantly in the cup, and Postum Cereal, the kind you boil. Both are the same wholesome drink—made of roasted whole wheat and bran. No trace of any artificial stimulant in them! Both cost much less than most other mealtime drinks. Order today!

How To Achieve Beauty

By MME. HELENE RUBINSTEIN
Noted Beauty Expert

Every once in a while I am confronted with the fact that many women really do not know what kind of skin they possess. In my work as a cosmetician I can so instantly recognize each type, that I fear I often forget that women who have not had my experience are at a loss to classify their own complexions. Since so many of my talks to you are based on skin classifications, I believe I should take a little space to tell you how to know your skin.

I admit it is not a simple problem. You cannot take all the skins in the world and put them in classes a, b and c, as you would with apples. There are really as many varieties of skin as there are kinds of people. Think what a difficult job you would have if you tried to classify all your acquaintances into good, bad, gay, pessimistic, well-balanced. It is almost as difficult to put complexions into their proper categories. However, there are three general classes of skin that take care of the basic differences—the normal, the oily, or the dry. Even in this classification, one cannot draw a definite line, because there are intermediate types, what one might call "mixed skins."

They are the most baffling. For instance, you may find that your nose and chin are oily, subject to "shine" and enlarged pores. But your cheeks may be exceptionally fine-textured and dry. This is a condition especially prevalent in certain parts of the country. In Cleveland, Ohio, for instance, I noticed that an unusually large proportion of the women had mixed skins.

Fortunately, there is a preponderance of virtually normal skins. I find that so often women come to me thinking they need special corrective treatment, but one glance at them tells me that all they require is a good daily regime to keep their complexions looking their best, and to preserve the freshness and youthfulness for future years.

If you do not know what type of complexion you possess, you will always be safe in choosing the normal skin treatment. If you find as you use it that your skin becomes shiny easily, and needs frequent applications of powder through the day, you will do best to add a lotion especially prepared to make the skin less oily. If, on the other hand, your complexion seems a little scaly and sensitive, if you are troubled with your powder "showing," substitute a lighter and oilier cleansing and massage cream, and use a finishing lotion prepared to restore natural humidity to a too-dry skin. It that way you can bring your skin up to the desired degree of normality, which is really the ideal for every skin.

As I told you in a recent talk, the three basic steps in the normal skin treatment are: (1) Thoroughly cleanse, (2) animate and clear, (3) tone and brace with a good astringent finishing lotion.

Make it a habit to study the texture of your skin carefully in a magnifying mirror, so that you can see if it is coarse or fine-grained, and can keep tab on what progress you are making toward bringing it to normal.

The Diary of a New Yorker

by CLARK KINNAIRD

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Captain A. J. Ayres, head of the Missing Persons bureau of the metropolitan police department, knows why girls leave home.

Unpleasant domestic conditions and foolish ideas about the glittering opportunities offered by Broadway are the principal reasons.

"The parents themselves, in most cases, are directly responsible for their daughters leaving home," he says. "They are too stern. Parents should not be so strict about entertainment of boys."

The bureau's help in locating lost sons and daughters, mothers and fathers, is enlisted by persons living in all states of the union and many foreign countries. There are regular requests for information regarding immigrants.

Nearly twice as many men and boys as women and girls get into the "missing" records of the police here. Last year 3,180 females were swallowed by the great city, a greater number than in any previous year.

A young woman who rode from Los Angeles to New York on horseback, had considerable difficulty in locating a public livery stable. But horses are not disappearing from Manhattan's traffic. They are much in evidence in the lower part of the island. Some large stores, dairies and bakeries with extensive and systematized deliveries have found horse-drawn vehicle more economical than autos. A few proud old families cling to carriages. The demand for saddle horses is certainly on the increase, with Central Park's bridle paths thronged at all daylight hours.

Sales of 200 and 300 horses are regularly held twice a week in an arena in Twenty-fourth street, at Lexington avenue. There, in the throng on Mondays and Thursdays, one is likely to see Martin Finn, who makes regular trips to the middle west to buy horses for the New York market. He doesn't believe the automobile will ever end the use of the animals.

"The horse is regaining all its lost popularity. There are more in the United States now than there ever were. A horse is the nearest thing to a human there is, and he won't disappear as long as there are humans."

At the sales arena, in Twenty-fourth street, there is regular trading in second-hand wagons, carriages and harness.

Clarence H. Mackay is Irving Berlin's unwilling father-in-law, but he nevertheless likes music, and guarantees the rather considerable losses of the New York Philharmonic orchestra, which pays Toscanini, the Italian conductor, $10,000. Toscanini is one of the few conductors who can pack a hall. This circumstance is responsible for a story they are telling about Gigli, the great tenor. Gigli went around to see his friend, Toscanini conduct, but couldn't get anything but standing room. He hurried to Toscanini's dressing-room complaining, "Standing room for me, Gigli? Must I stand?"

"What, you complain?" the maestro, unaffected, replied. "What do you think I do for two hours?"

HELP KIDNEYS BY DRINKING MORE WATER

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation.

Radio Television Has Great Possibilities

See Great Future For Radio-Television As Aid To Unseen Audience

Radio Has Been Means Of Linking Nations Closer Together, Harbord Says

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, March 29.—In the political campaign of 1932, radio, through its newly developed sister—television—will enable millions to see, as well as hear, the distant speaker.

This was the prophecy voiced today by Major General J. G. Harbord, president of the Radio Corporation of America, in a speech before the Chicago Association of Commerce.

In a glowing word picture of radio's bewildering strides and of its future possibilities, General Harbord said:

"It links the nations together in the betterment of relations and the promotion of enduring peace.

"The printed page is already flashed across the oceans. International broadcasting will become commonplace. The operas of Europe and the incomparable music of those great countries to the south of ours will be nightly heard in American homes.

"The temple bells of Asia will chime for us, and from that land of old religions will come the philosophies of her ancient races. Old and new civilization will throb together to the same intellectual appeal and to the same artistic emotions. The thought currents of all humanity will mingle, their ebb and flow no longer impeded by dividing oceans.

As to the practical uses and possibilities of radio in times of national emergency, General Harbord declared:

"In the event of great dangers to our country, if unhappily they should come again, radio has made it possible for the President to appeal in his own voice to our millions, personally rallying them to the support of our government and its institutions."

A HEALTH PRACTICE THOUSANDS FOLLOW

A daily bowl of ALL-BRAN keeps you fit

Doctors say we need bulk every day to keep well and regular. Because of the bulk or roughage it contains, ALL-BRAN is a natural preventive of constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is 100 per cent bran—therefore 100 per cent effective. It supplies bulk in effective quantities. Two tablespoonfuls daily — chronic cases, with every meal — are guaranteed to relieve constipation.

Don't expect part-bran products to furnish the bulk you need. At best they can only be part-way effective. Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN, because it is all bran.

A delicious cereal—healthful and nourishing—with unusual food value. Enjoy with milk or cream, with fruits or honey added. Use in cooking too. Sprinkle into soups. Sold by all grocers. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Dogs Running At Large Are Menace

Frank N. Johnston, Local Game Protector, Issues Statement About Situation

Dogs running at large are a menace in Lawrence county, according to District Game Protector Frank N. Johnston.

In a statement today he said:

"Dogs which are permitted to run at large constitute a nuisance to every citizen. One of the greatest enemies of our small game the beneficial birds is the dog which is permitted to roam the fields and woods during spring and summer months, during the breeding and nesting season of small birds and animals.

"The game commission of Pennsylvania pays out great sums of the sportsmen's money each year for the purchase of game birds and animals for re-stocking our fields and woods, in order that those who pay a license to hunt may enjoy better hunting.

"Large numbers of these birds and animals purchased by the game commissioners at a very high price are liberated in our woods and fields only to be destroyed by worthless hungry dogs.

"Dogs are not only a menace to wild life, but also a nuisance to the farmer and even to the small backyard gardener. The department of agriculture is also desirous of securing better observance of the dog laws, and all state and county officers have been instructed to enforce the law to the letter.

"Many dogs have already been disposed of and the owners compelled to pay fines and costs and the campaign will continue until we secure better observance of this important law, which will greatly benefit every sportsman and citizen."

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

Letters intended for this column must be signed with name and address of writer.

OFFERS HER SOLUTION.

Editor of The News.
New Castle, Pa.

Dear Sir:—

I read your editorial and feel there is a solution of this problem that has caused this city to be in confusion for the past three years.

There is only one solution and that is to not change our time at all. Who profits by the change? Not the working man or woman, the great body of churches in our city nor the many families of railroad men. Therefore who is benefited by this so-called Daylight Saving time? The man who has time to play, go to the club house and pass his hours, therefore who are in the majority? Why, the former class of course.

If you can show the public where the time is saved you may convince the great mass of people here who are literaly opposed to this time. For myself I have talked with a large number of the citizens of our fair city, every one is confused no one knows when to catch a train and one has to stop to figure if the right time is one hour fast or one hour slow. Men who have had to rise at 5 a. m. to be at work at 7 rise at 4 but cannot go to bed the hour earlier unless they go during the twilight and none do that.

Mothers and babies are receiving their usual rest; baby cannot go to sleep under this new time as early as usual, yet he is up when mother gets up at 4 to get daddy to the shop; all the children are up. It is strange that one hour causes so much disruption, but it does.

I have been in so many of these homes caring for their ill and these are some of the reasons why mothers oppose this time. Who are to be considered, the mothers, children and working class or the few people who do not rise before 8 or 8:30 each day? These few men can spend all or part of the day in pleasure, want the extra hour in the evening as time means nothing to them.

Are we living so fast that we have to change our time to crowd more into the 12 hour day? This is the trouble with the human race, they are living too fast and what are the results? We find broken health in case after case. Physicians will tell patient after patient it is "rest you need." The reply is usually "rest, where can I rest?" Yet with the time as it is the great mass of people do not get the proper amount of rest. If the time is changed from May 31 until September the people will lose 92 hours of rest as they can not retire before dark. Therefore it is wrong to place upon the people a greater burden than they already have.

The fact that the Ministerial association opposes it proves it hurts the church service and personally I know it did the last three years. If we let down our church services what will become of the people? They will pleasure ride at 6:30; their pastor and a few will gather for services then it is hard for these people to get the church habit again. No the work of God can suffer for the pleasure of a few. The price is too great. Better leave the time alone.

Let the men who want this time rise an hour earlier and go about their business, not placing such an unreasonable burden upon the shoulders of the majority in this question.

What right has any body of men to change any of our laws? and Eastern Standard time is a state law. The court house employes and all the railroad men must keep Eastern Standard time.

I trust this letter will not fall into the waste basket without at least some consideration of those people who make it possible for us to have this good city in which we live.

Respectfully yours,

MRS. HAZEL SOUTHWORTH, R. D. No. 3.

ENJOYS GLORIOUS HEALTH; GLAD TO INDORSE KONJOLA

Young New Castle Lady Says New Medicine Ended All Her Health Troubles

MISS SYLVIA COOPER

Seavy Photo

This surprising new medical compound, Konjola, which the Konjola Man is explaining in person to large crowds daily at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., has not only become the sensation of this city, but is also the talk of cities and towns thruout this entire section. For instance, just the other day Miss Sylvia Cooper, 1204 School St., New Castle, made the following report about Konjola.

"I had been a sufferer for years", said Miss Cooper, "trying first one thing and then another, before I ever knew there was a medicine like Konjola, and now since I got this new compound it has ended years of constipation for me and my stomach trouble is gone.

"The worst thing about my case was the awful constipation pains that came over me. I couldn't eat a meal without suffering. My food seemed to sour and ferment, causing loads of gas to form and sharp pains around my heart. I was also subject to heart burn that lasted for hours. Because of the constipation my system filled with poisons and I never could get rid of them. Although I tried strong laxatives, they never gave me any relief. All during the day I would have awful dizzy spells that felt as if a thousand needles were sticking in me. Besides these troubles my liver was sluggish and this caused my complexion to be almost yellowish. I didn't know what it was to get a good night's rest and I always felt dreadful in the mornings.

"When the Konjola Man reached New Castle I decided to try this medicine. It turned out to be just exactly what my system always needed. Before my first bottle was gone I could feel an improvement in every way. I continued with the medicine and now I can enjoy meals without suffering afterward. The indigestion spells do not come and I never suffer from gas bloating or heartburn like I used to. Konjola regulated my bowels and I have free movement every day. The dizzy spells have disappeared and my complexion has cleared up. In every way I feel like a new person. I sleep soundly all night long.

"Konjola has done more for me than anything else I ever tried and I will always be glad to recommend it to others who suffer."

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Many Packages Left In Cathedral Rooms

This is the tale of Melissa the scarf, and some of her queer companions, who would awandering go.

In the first place, Melissa wasn't an ordinary scarf. Even her colorings show that. But today she is ordinary; just a plain scarf, but a scarf with an interesting history.

Perhaps Melissa started her more mundane existence on the bargain counter of one of the local department stores; but anyway, she soon acquired a feminine owner.

The evening of the afternoon that Melissa was purchased, the young man called. He suggested that they take in a show, and soon Melissa was wrapped about the neck of the fairest girl in the city. It was when they got to the entrance of the Scottish Rite cathedral that the accident happened. A sudden gust of wind caught Melissa and balloon like, she started upward, not to stop until she reached the roof garden.

The young man complained to the management, and today Melissa is in the manager's office, waiting for her owner to claim her.

Yes, Melissa rests among a number of things in the lost and found department of the cathedral. There are beads and pocketbooks and vanity cases, cr dorines?, and garters of the more fluffy sort and gloves and boots and books and notebooks and brooches and ear rings and umbrellas, not to mention a few packages of meat and vegetables which had to be disposed of before their owners could claim them.

But as yet, says Herbert Peairs, manager of the cathedral, the lost and found department has not even been started. In the near future he expects to have a regular department where everything will be filed by a number.

Henry Ford Likely To Get Call Before Senate Coal Probe

Indications Point To Henry Ford As Witness In Week Or Ten Days

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Another millionaire industrial leader, Henry Ford, was on the Senate coal committee's witness list today.

Ford is not expected to testify for a week or 10 days as the committee already has enough witnesses on hand to fill all the seats in the hearing room. The investigation probably will last for another month at least.

The committee already has heard three millionaire witnesses in John D. Rockefeller Jr., Charles M. Schwab and R. B. Mellon of iPttsburgh, brother of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

Ford will be questioned about reports he is paying higher than union scale in his southern West Virginia mines. He operates under the name of the Fordson Coal Company.

Constitutional power of the committee to investigate the coal industry was to be argued today by attorneys for southern West Virginia operators. They challenged the committee's authority on the ground that production of coal is not interstate commerce.

William A. Johns Is Struck By Auto

Accident Occurs On North Mercer Street On Wednesday Evening

William A. Johns, 1103 South Mer- street, widely known throughout the city as "Brython", a title accorded him by the Welsh people because of his ability as a composer, is in the Shenango Valley hospital as a result of injuries sustained last night shortly before nine o'clock on North Mercer street, when struck by the automobile of Roy W. Dickey, New Castle R. D. No. 3, as he was crossing the street.

Immediately following the accident Mr. Johns was removed to the Shenango Valley hospital, where it was found that his injuries consisted of a severe cut on the right temple and minor bruises. It took three stitches to close the wound on his forehead. He was much improved this morning and hoped to be able to return to his home some time today.

According to the report made to the police by Mr. Dickey he was driving north on North Mercer street, when his machine struck Mr. Johns as the latter crossed from the east to the west side of North Mercer street. He was knocked to the street.

Mr. Johns was picked up by A. O. Perkins of 13 Round street and Mr. Dickey and removed to the hospital.

Buffalo Bill, Scout Of Scouts—Part XXVIII
Dangers Of The Trail

RIDING THE "PONY EXPRESS" IN THE SUMMER OF 1860 WAS A HAZARDOUS BUSINESS. "ROAD AGENTS", AS THE DESPERATE OUTLAWS WHO INFESTED THE TRAILS WERE CALLED, LAY IN WAIT TO ROB THE MESSENGERS OF THE VALUABLE MAIL THEY CARRIED, AND THERE WAS THE EVER-PRESENT DANGER OF HOSTILE INDIANS.

BILLY CODY'S "RIDE" EXTENDED FROM RED BUTTES TO SWEETWATER IN WYOMING. THIS PART OF THE TRAIL LAY THROUGH DANGEROUS COUNTRY, AND THE YOUTHFUL MESSENGER HAD MANY HAIRBREADTH ESCAPES.

ONE DAY BILLY WAS PURSUED FOR MANY MILES BY A BAND OF FIFTEEN BRAVES. HE OUTRAN HIS PURSUERS, AND REACHED THE NEXT STATION, ONLY TO FIND THAT IN THE NIGHT INDIANS HAD KILLED THE KEEPER AND DRIVEN OFF THE PONIES.

THE BOY WAS FORCED TO PUSH ON AND FINALLY, AFTER A WILD RIDE, ARRIVED AT A WAYSIDE POST, UNHURT BUT EXHAUSTED, HAVING COVERED TWENTY-FOUR MILES ON ONE MOUNT ON A DEAD RUN.

TOMORROW—A PUNITIVE EXPEDITION.

"Run, Dilks, Run!" Is Message From Citizens

Dilks Boosters To Aid Runner, Family

Enthusiasts Meet At Elks And Form Organization; Various Plans Have Been Adopted Whereby Funds Will Be Raised To Help Runner Carry On In Coast-To-Coast Race; Not Receiving Salary From B. & O.; Employers And Friends Declare Runner Is Worthy Of Consideration Of New Castle; Is Advised By Telegram Of Citizens' Support

(By ED FRITZ)

Enthusiastic supporters of Earl Lin Dilks, long distance runner gathered at the Elks club last night, formally organized the Dilks Boosters and completed plans for raising funds to aid Dilks and his family.

During the meeting it developed that Dilks, a B. & O. employe is on a furlough and neither he nor his family are receiving monetary aid from the railroad.

The organization sent Dilks a night letter asking how the citizens of the city, through the Dilks boosters, can aid him and also told the runner that during his coast-to-coast race his family will be cared for. "Run, Dilks, run!" was the shot of encouragement that will spur the New Castle man along the weary journey.

Recently the Kiwanis club forwarded $25 to the runner and Fred Rentz, when advised of the publicity that the fleet-footed New Castle man is bringing, contributed $50, saying it could be used for Dilks though he wanted his family cared for.

As many prominent men of the city in addition to the mill employes, railroaders, professional and businessmen and school children clamored that something be done to spur on the New Castle man. J. Garfield Davis issued a call to the persons interested to convene last night at the Elks club and a crowd of fans who are vitally interested in Dilks and the advertisement he is netting the city convened at the clubhouse.

Organization Formed.

It was decided to form under the name of the Dilks Boosters' organization and officers were named as follows: President, J. Garfield Davis; secretary-treasurer, Ed McMillen, and auditors, Ed Raney and W. R. Raney.

Plans for raising funds were discussed after Dr. F. Dorsey, medical examiner of the B. & O., and J. L. Thoman, terminal trainmaster of the railroad, had told the assembly that Dilks is on a furlough and is not receiving salary from the company.

For the present it was explained by Davis and Rhodes that the family is situated all right, but it is probable that some aid will be necessary should the runner continue to cross the continent and various offers of aid were told.

A. W. Chilton, commissioner, chamber of commerce, told of Herbert A. Pears, manager of the Scottish Rite cathedral, saying that should tickets be sold for any performance at the cathedral, the entire amount of ticket money would be given to Dilks.

The offer was accepted and W. R. Rhodes proposes to have tickets printed and sold by Boy Scouts. Subscription blanks will be placed at scores of places and persons can donate any amount they may be pleased to give.

Drop Money in Box.

Joe Simons has asked to help the runner and a box will be located at Mill & Washington streets where persons can drop in what ever amount they desire and each night the sum will be collected by J. Garfield Davis.

The two auditors will see that every cent expended is accounted for and with Dilks having the knowledge that the city is behind his every step and that his family will not want for anything while he is making the trip, this will spur him on toward his goal.

Among the men who told of Dilks being a clean cut athlete, a man with a spotless character and a good husband were those who have associated and worked with him. His superiors on the B. & O. could not say too much for him.

Due to his modesty it was not generally known he planned to enter the coast-to-coast race and Mont Wagner, a personal friend, told some of the incidents of his life as he knows Dilks very well.

Will Get Trainer's Help.

Jack Lewis sugested that a telegram be sent to Dilks advising him of the organization, what it proposes to do and to ascertain if he needs money for care while running which it is believed is absolutely necessary to help him keep in condition.

There are about 96 runners left in the race and though Dilks is behind it doesn't mean much in a long race as any of the leaders are apt to collapse or leave the race on account of soreness. Money can secure a trainer for Dilks.

The writer concurred in Lewis' opinion after which Fred Rentz, publisher of The News, said that "the officers of the Dilks Boosters organization should be given power to act and send the young man anything that he needs to help him." The motion was passed quickly.

Encouraging Message.

The following telegram to Dilks was prepared and was dispatched to Seven Springs, N. M.:

"Dilks Boosters organized tonight. Raising funds to aid you. Wire what we can do. Do you need money for care along route and at control station? Good care will be taken of your family. Wire collect but mail running schedule. 'Run, Dilks, run!' New Castle is behind you 100 per cent."

The telegram was signed by J. Garfield Davis, chairman of the Dilks boosters, and within 48 hours or as soon as the telegram can be received and a reply forwarded to New Castle, the needs of Earl Lin Dilks will be satisfied by the citizens.

Watch Dilks Go!

Rea and Gardner finished the lap first to Seven Srings, N. M., yesterday but Suominen, Gavuzzi and Payne are one, two and three in the long grind. Dilks is taking things easy as he realizes that it is a long, long way to the Atlantic ocean but with the knowledge that the city is behind him in every way possible, Dilks will probably get some expert care from the funds to be sent him and then watch the New Castle boy set his eyes eastward and run.

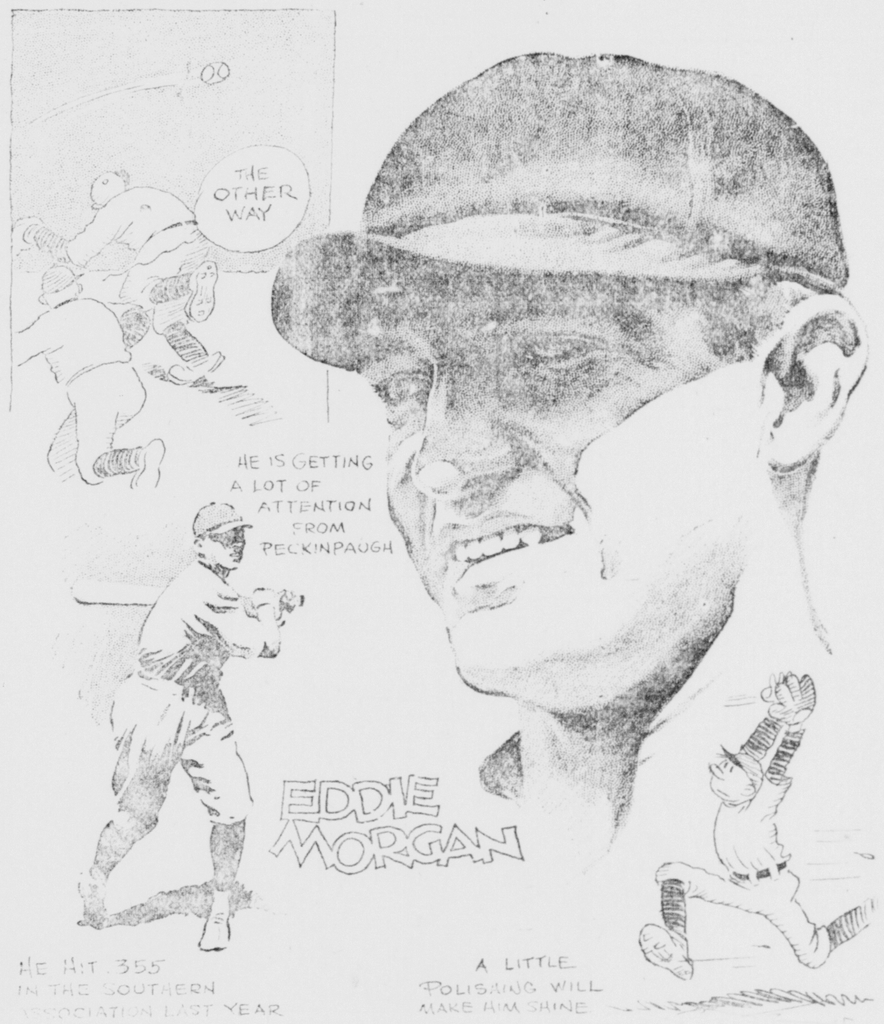
SORDS POINTS—By Jack Sords

Eddie Morgan Holds Spotlight as One of Most Interesting Rookies of Season



No rookie struggling for a berth on any of the big league squads is receiving more attention than Eddie Morgan, the young sensation with the Cleveland Indians at New Orleans, La.

Cleveland has long been in need of a good center fielder and left no stone unturned in its hunt for one. Morgan may be the boy they've been looking for.

Baseball men who have watched the young Mr. Morgan in action have expressed belief that greatness may lie beneath the present crudeness of the youngster.

Thus far, however, Morgan hasn't looked quite as good as some of his fellow rocks in the camp of the Redskins. However, Manager Roger Peckinpaugh doesn't seem worried. He is one of those firm in the belief of Morgan's capabilities.

Perhaps the Indian chief has in mind Morgan's debut into the Southern league last year.

Eddie had starred on the diamond for Tulane university and the New Orleans club decided to give him a try. During spring training he looked just fair. The season began and there was as yet no marked improvement in the work of Morgan.

After a couple of weeks play was out of the way Eddie began to pick up and in a few days was the sensation of the Dixie circuit. Big league scouts rushed south to look over this new marvel the Pelicans owned. The Indians landed him by handing over a neat sum in cash and three players.

Here is Eddie's 1927 record: In 157 games he made 215 hits for a .355 average. Morgan scored 115 runs and stole 23 bases. His four years at Tulane had ripened into classy player right at the start of his professional career.

Morgan, though just 23 years old, weighs 180 pounds and is over six feet tall. He bats and throws right handed. At Tulane he starred in baseball, football and basketball.

CHRISTNER WINS ANOTHER 'KAYO'

AKRON, O., March 29.—K. O. Christner, Akron's heavyweight, who is attempting to work into a bout with Johnny Risko of Cleveland, made a quick jump to another step by knocking out Jack Adams of Chicago in the first round of their scheduled 10-round fight at the Armory here last night.

Adams hardly landed a blow, and Christner, with left jabs and quick rights, forced the army battler to the ropes and battered him in rapid succession until Adams was unable to brace himself for a comeback.

Adams slumped limply to the canvas and had to be assisted to his corner after the count of nine.

REIDER-OSTROSKY PLAY FINE GAME

The W. P. I. A. L. all-star combination basketball team picked by Coach Evans of Braddock High defeated the N. W. P. I. A. L. all-star team selected by Coach Eddie Treadwell of Franklin by a score of 47 to 25 in a brilliant battle at Allegheny college on Wednesday night.

Paul Reider and Tony Ostrosky, members of the New Castle High floor team were picked by Evans and the local boys added plenty of color to the outfit that rode to victory. Reider came through with six baskets and was easily one of the outstanding stars of the game. Ostrosky was a tower of strength on the guard job.

Coach Evans started Mills of Braddock and Whitehead of McKeesport at the forwards, Butler of Charleroi at center and Ostrosky of New Castle and Berger of Homestead at the guards. The score at the end of the first quarter was 12 to 3. The second quarter found Reider of New Castle and Garback of Edgewod at the forwards, Brown of Braddock at center and Berger of Homestead and DeCoster of Charlerot at the guards. The score at the end of the first half was 26 to 6.

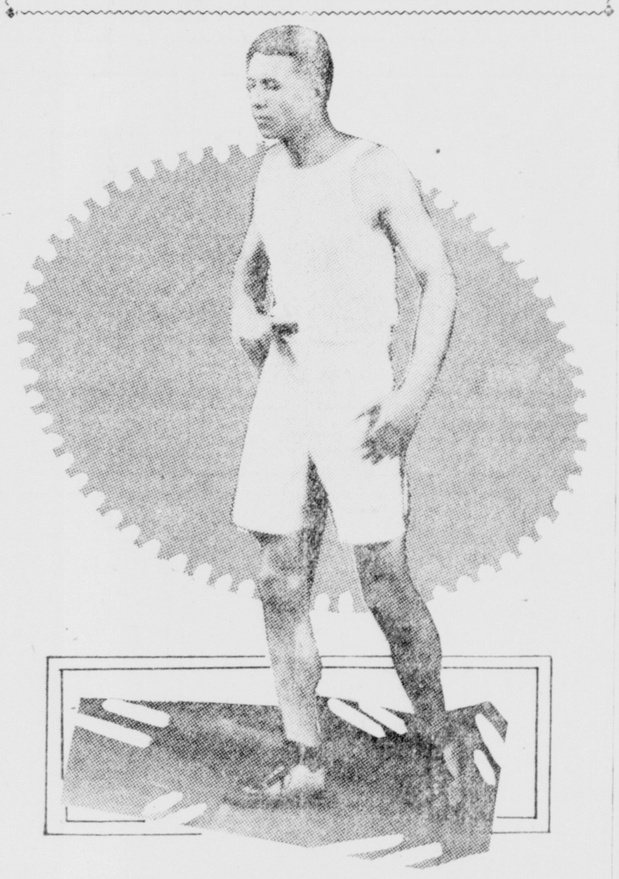
The team that started the game was used again in the third quarter and the N. W. P. I. A. L. team started to creep up, the score at the end of the third quarter was 35 to 22. The team that played the fourth and final quarter was Reider and Garback at the forwards, Brown at center and DeCoster and Ostrosky at the guards.

The W. P. I. A. L. team held the Northwestern team to three points in the fourth period while with Reider and Garback playing sensational ball ran up the total to 47.

N. W. P. I. A. L. team was composed of the following: Smiley and Yeager of Franklin High; Dennison and Massing of Meadville, Flaherty and Conlon of Sharon; Seifert and Holcomb of Erie Central; Borland of Oil City and Clary of Sharpsville.

Ralph H. Gardner of Senior high school accompanied Reider and Ostrosky to Meadville.

Carrying On For New Castle



EARL LIN DILKS—New Castle's participant in the coast-to-coast race, is in good spirits and is as enthusiastic as ever about his chances to either win or finish among the leaders in probably the most gruelling test of foot racing that has ever been staged.

Out of the several hundred who started, Dilks is among the 96 who are still in the "going". Plans were made here by the Dilks boosters organization to provide funds so that Earl can receive necessary care while running.

Travis Jackson's life is just one fellow player after another. Last year he had to acquaint himself with the style of play produced by Rogers Hornsby in order that the Giant infield would work smoothly.

The year before Jackson geared his play to that of Frankie Frisch. This year he must learn to work well with Andy Cohen whose Herculean task it is to be a successor to Hornsby.

This might be be harrowing to most players but not to Travis. He has the baseball spirit and seems never to spare himself in fielding, throwing, running or sliding into a base.

Church Baseball League To Play Split Season

Plans Under Way For Coming Baseball Season; Mahoning M. E. Joins Loop

Plans are being made by the New Castle Church Baseball League for a bigger and better season in 1928. The managers have agreed to play a split season again this year. Nine teams will comprise the circuit.

The next meeting of the league managers will take place at the Y. M. C. A. on April 5. At the next meeting the list of eligible players will be turned in and a group of officials elected to handle the league business. Each team in the league is asked to have their manager and director at the meeting.

Howard Reed, president of the league in 1927, says that the outlook for the coming season is fine, and that the league will thrive this year with fast battles.

The First Christians won the church league flag for the first half of the season last year and the Central Christians came through victorious in the second half of the season. In the championship play-off at the end of the year the First Christians defeated the Central's two out of three games.

The following teams are expected to comprise the league this year: First Christians, Central Christians, Central Presbytertans, First Methodist, Croton M. E., Epworth M. E., First Baptists, and the Mahoning M. E. The Mahoning team is a newcomer, taking over the franchise of the Third U. P. team.

Slovensky Named Indies Manager

At a recent meeting of the Lawrence Indies, Morris Slovensky, was elected to manage the team in the coming baseball season.

The next meeting of the team will be held on Sunday, April 1, at the Hares Service Station, the meeting will start at 3 o'clock. All of last year's players desiring their release are asked to attend the meeting on Sunday and to turn in their uniforms.

I spotted that . . . it suited me best even blindfolded. In fact, the man who said 'not a cough in a carload' knew whereof he spoke. It's the smoothness that identifies OLD GOLD. It needs no other trade mark."

How Test Was Made

Subject was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one of each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. Coffee was served before each cigarette to clear the taste. Subject was entirely unaware of the identify of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the entire series of four cigarettes, subject was asked to designate by number his choice. In the case presented here, Mr. Flagg's first choice was cigarette No. 2, which was OLD GOLD.

The Biggest Pitchers — By Feg Murray

According to the rosters sent out by the 16 major league ball clubs most of the biggest athletes in the National and American leagues are pitchers. I have always heard that a pitcher should possess a lot of poise but I didn't know they meant avoirdupois. Excepting Babe Ruth, whose tonnage varies anywhere from 215 to 250 pounds, the ten heaviest players in the majors are all pitchers "Jumbo" Elliott of the Brooklyn Dodgers, leads this "Parade of Poundage" with a credit of 235 pounds, ten more than Garland Buckeye of the Indians who, unless I am mistaken weighed in the neighborhood of 250 a couple of years ago. Both of these hippopotami are southpaws.

Next on the list are Eppa Jeptha Rixey of the Reds, another southpaw who tips the scales at 210 and Ernie Nevers, righthander of the Browns and professional football star who is practicaly a lightweight just being able to scale 205. Following in order came Carl Mays of the Reds, Jimmy Ring and Frank Ulrich of the Phils, Jess Petty of the Dodgers, Waite Hoyt of the Yankees and Sam Gibson of Detroit all of whom weigh 195.

"Jumbo" Elliott whose real name is James T., was one of the promising recruits of 1927 and much is expected of him this coming season. He won 26 games and lost 20 for Seattle in 1926 so Manager Robinson recalled him last year and he proceeded to win 6 and lose 13 for the Dodgers. But his earned run average was only 3.30 and you mustn't forget how little the 1927 Brooklyn club did to help its pitchers win any ball games.

Feg Murray Says.

A sportsman buying a pair of elephant tusks was informed that they would cost him $300. "But aren't they awfu' dear?" he queried. "No" said the salesman "these happen to be off an elephant."

O. & P. Managers To Meet Sunday

League Managers In Favor Of Split Season This Year

LEAGUE TO START SEASON NEXT MONTH

CANTON, O., March 29. — O. & P. League managers are in accord with the 1928 split season and will meet at Cleveland Sunday to approve the draft that is to be presented for the first half. George Textor will represent New Castle.

Last season the league enjoyed a split season and Massillon won the pennant. Beaver Falls took the first half and Massillon the second but in the playoff the Massillon team won.

It is planned to start the season during the latter part of April to avoid conflict with Central League teams in Akron and Canton. The O. & P. is not a member of organized baseball as yet and do not wish to stir up trouble.

The first half schedule will close July 4, and no delay will be entertained in resuming rivalry which is to conclude on or about Labor Day. Battling for honors will be teams representing Massillon, Beaver Falls, New Castle and Youngstown.

Managers already have adopted a set of rules that has eliminated much of the red tape of former seasons. They have agreed to stay within the 16-player roster, and no changes or additions will be recorded after August 7 in the second half to avoid "loading up."

Blame Engineer In Train Wreck

Hold Engineer Responsible For Freight Wreck On Pennsy Railroad

ENTERED BLOCK ON PERMISSIVE SIGNAL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, March 29.—Responsibility for the wreck near Marsh Run on the Baltimore division of the Pennsylvania railroad on March 16, in which one employe was fatally hurt and another seriously injured, was placed on L. J. Simmers, Wilmington, engineer of one of the four trains involved, in a report of the bureau of accidents of the public service commission made public today.

The report does not name Simmers who is in a local hospital in a serious condition from injuries he received in the wreck. It does, however, make it clear that the first of the crashes resulted from the "inattention" of the engineer of the freight which crashed into the rear end of another. Both were westbound. A few minutes later an eastbound freight and an eastbound passenger train plunged into the wreckage.

Investigations of the bureau revealed that Simmers entered the block under a permissive signal. He passed a lighted fuse and the flagman of the train into which his engine crashed. After lighting the fusee the flagman went back 515 feet to signal any approaching trains.

POLICE ARREST MAN IN BATTLE

Have Lively Time With Man Acting Queerly On Sharp Street

Receiving a call to No. 5 Sharp street, last night, Officers Dukes and Thompson were detailed.

On their arrival there, they found that Thomas Stone, aged 61, a rather powerful man, was threatening his niece, Mrs. Laura Heims and acting in a manner that indicated a disturbed mental condition.

When the officers attempted to quiet him, Stone in turn attempted to bite the officers and in self protection, they were compelled to handcuff him, also tie his feet.

They did not do this, however, until after Mrs. Heims went before Alderman J. Lee Cooper and made an information charging her uncle with surety of the peace.

When the charge had been made, the officers took Stone to the county jail, where he was placed in the padded cell, pending the outcome of the case. It is probable that a commission may be needed to decide on his mental condition.

He has been having peculiar mental attacks lately and has been threatening Mrs. Heims for some time, it was stated. He was busy all day yesterday breaking dishes and doing other acts of indicated violent turn of mind.

Kirker To Aid Diamond Men To Get In Trim

So that muscles of baseball players may be loosened gradually and not get sudden shocks which lead to charlie horses, a baseball night will take place in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Tuesday evening, April 2, announces Walter E. Kirker, physical director.

The program will consist of stunts, games and calesthenics, designed to get players into condition. There will be work with the medicine ball, batting practice, fielding practice, and classes in theory and technique. Of course, it is restricted to baseball. No basketball games will be played on the night of April 2.

All senior members of the Y. M. C. A. are eligible for the class, says Mr. Kirker. If enough interested people show up, it is planned to have these meetings once or twice a week throughout the month of April and during the early part of May.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, March 29.—Irregularity, with a further toning down of speculative activity on the big board, characterized the early trading today. All of the motor stocks sold lower in the first half-hour, General Motors dropping 2½ points and the low-priced motor shares a point each. The rails and oils were quiet, with New York Central and Sinclair leading a moderate advance in their respective groups. Radio sold up 2½ points and the can stocks were strong.

The usual Thursday hesitation and uncertainty concerning the condition of brokers' loans to be reported after the close of the market was augmented by the month-end tightening up of the money market in preparation for the April quarterly "settlements" next week. Interest and dividend payments this year will be unusually heavy, but this will eventually mean a larger fund of investment cash for the bond and stock markets.

Better buying of copper metal was reflected in a strong market for the copper stocks. American Smelting led the advance in this group, and higher prices were quoted for Chile Copper, Greene Cananea, Kennecott, Inspiration and Anaconda. Business and industrial reports were generally favorable, manufacturers in all parts of the country being ready to speed up their productive machinery to meet the expanding demands of the markets. The call loan renewall rate started the day at 4¾ per cent, compared with yesterday's close at 5 per cent.

Iron Age Review Of Steel Market

Heavy Steel Output Is Being Maintained; Steel Corporation At 90 Per Cent Rate

(Special To The News)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 29.—The Iron Age in its weekly summary of the iron and steel trade tomorrow will say:

Heavy steel output is being maintained and, in some districts, notably at Pittsburgh, is showing further gains but the trend of prices is no longer upward and irregularities in quotations are more numerous the opportunity to reduce costs with a high rate of operations has, no doubt, influenced mills to accept additions to contracts at lower than prevailing prices or to shade the market on spot business.

Prices of sheets, strips and wire nails are increasingly irregular. Underlying the finished steel market is an unpromising situation in the primary materials. The scrap and coke markets have a weak tone, and in some sections pig iron prices are commencing to give ground.

The Steel Corporation is again operating at a 90 per cent rate after having dipped to 88 per cent. Its subsidiary, the Carnegie Steel Co., has lighted three blast furnaces during the week, now having 34 of its 50 stacks active. For both Corporation and independent plants in the greater Pittsburgh district, steel ingot output now averages 85 per cent, as against 80 per cent two weeks ago. Contributing to improved output of raw steel has been a gain in tin plate mill operations, the current average being 90 per cent of capacity compared with 85 per cent last week.

New orders for finished steel are comparatively light, but, with some mills advising their trade that unspecified tonnage on contracts will be cancelled March 31, specifying is in larger volume. However, there has been less of a rush to enter specifications than was expected in the Cleveland district, buyers whose plants are not busy are permitting their contracts to lapse.

Nevertheless, much of the steel that will be shipped in April will be at first quarter contract prices, thereby deferring a severe test of recent advances for several weeks more. In a few products the price issue has already been raised. Irregularities in black sheets are more numerous, with some producers taking business, at least temporarily, at $1 to $2 a ton below the recent ruling quotation of 2.90c. per lb. Pittsburgh. Concessions of $2 a ton from 3.75c. on galvanized sheets have been made by both mills and jobbers. The automotive industry is expected to keep up its present high rate of production through April, with good operations in sight at least through May. There is a heavy demand for steel from motor car builders, but they are ordering cautiously—as a rule only far enough ahead to assure a steady flow of materials from the mills.

Heavy backlogs in rails have been augmented by 18,000 tons placed by the Great Northern. The Gary mill took half of the tonnage, while the Inland and Bethlehem companies booked 4500 tons each. Another Western road which placed a contract in the Winter has ordered 4000 tons additional.

Steel mills will furnish about 15,000 tons of steel for 1000 car bodies bought by the Chicago & North Western and 200 ore cars ordered by the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific. The latter road has still to buy 4650 freight cars.

KANE, Pa., March 29.—Only two Civil war veterans were living in Kane today. Death claimed another yesterday when George Griffiths, 86 succumbed to illness and old age. Until two years ago the veteran was active in public affairs.

Timely Message By Evangelist Scripture At Hoover Heights

Evangelist George B. Scripture brought another heart searching message last evening at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle on the subject "Sowing To The Wind." His text was taken from Hosea 8:7, "For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind; it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up."

Stewart Walker sang "Have You Counted the Cost" and Mrs. Geo. B. and Mrs. M. J. Scripture sang "Nothing Less."

BOY SCOUT Activities

BESSEMER

The first meeting of the Bessemer troop 1 which has been recently organized was held this week and was very successful. After the meeting was called to order, registrations were accepted and instruction books on scouting were given out.

The scouts decided to follow the endorsed patrol system in the troop, therefore four patrols were formed. Three of the patrols have been given the following names: Wolf, Moose and Fox. The other patrol has not as yet chosen its name.

This meeting, although the first of the troop, was very successful and in all probability the troop will make rapid strides to be a first class troop. The next meeting will be held at the Bessemer school and will begin at 6:15 o'clock.

Scribe—Ed Seltzer.

TROOP 5

The weekly meeting of troop 5 will be held this evening at the Elks club. The meeting will be the usual business and instruction meeting as held weekly.

The officials of the troop have requested that all members of the troop be present, also visitors are invited.

Can Register On Wednesday

Voters Who Have Moved Since Last Election Must Register

Registrars will be at the different polling places in New Castle on April 4 for the purpose of registering all voters who have changed their places of living since the registration last fall.

There seems to be some misunderstanding on the part of some who believe that because they registered last fall they will not have to register this spring. This is true if they have not moved out of the voting precinct in which they resided.

But if a person has moved from one precinct to another since last fall, it will be necessary to register again on April 4. The reason for this is that your name would not be on the poll books of the precinct in which you now reside and would not be allowed to vote.

Persons who have moved into the city from other sections of the county or state, must also register on April 4. In cases of persons coming from another state, a year's residence here is necessary before they can register.

The different polling places will be open from 7 to 9 a. m., 11 a. m. until 2 p. m. and from 4 to 10 p. m.

Stinson Trying For New Record

Up In Air More Than 24 Hours In Endurance Flight Attempt

(International News Service)

JACKSONVILLE, BEACH, Florida, March 29.—Twenty four hours in the air, Eddie Stinson and George Haldeman were still aloft early this morning in their huge monoplane and apparently are headed for a new world's endurance flight. They took off early yesterday morning.

All through the night the drone of their motor kept watchers on the beach awake. Perfect weather prevailed, and the forecast was favorable for today.

They were flying at an altitude of about 2,000 feet this morning, and making about 75 miles an hour.

The aviators dropped a message this morning stating that the Stinson-Detroiter was using less fuel than they had anticipated and they were confident of breaking the record.

Bids are being taken at the present time for the tearing down of the steeple on the Emmanuel Baptist church, located at the corner of South Jefferson and Reynolds streets, states William Phillips, a member of the church.

These bids will be considered at the Sunday morning meeting of the board of trustees and a decision will be made soon after so that the work of dismantling the structure may be commenced at once.

Blackmer Resigns Board Position In Midwest Company

(International News Service)

DENVER, March 29.—Henry M. Blackmer, missing Teapot Dome witness, resigned Wednesday as a member of the board of the Midwest Oil company, it was announced by T. A. Dines, chairman of the board. Dines declared Blackmer's resignation was voluntary and denied reports that the oil man's retirement followed pressure brought by the so-called 'Rockefeller interests."

Blackmer's son, Myron Blackmer, resigned as a director of the Midwest several weeks ago following his appearance before the senate oil committee in Washington at which time he intimated that he believed his father's continued absence from this country and refusal to appear before the oil investigators was motivated by a desire to "protect other persons."

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

It's a dreary looking place now. The building needs painted badly, the windows are grimy, and there is an appearance of decay about the place that just breathes hopelessness. A sort of down at the heel appearance.

Time was when the building was resplendent in paint and gilt. One side of the first floor was the lobby of the hotel with big comfortable chairs scattered about, and newspapers, and a ritzy looking cigar counter. And sitting in the chairs, smoking the cigars and reading the newspapers were men who appeared to be the soul of affluence.

On the other side of the first floor was the bar. As a boy I used to pass there hearing a strange hubbub of sound, a murmur of many voices, the tinkle of glasses, and the metallic ring of the cash register as the money went in.

It's different now. The entire first floor is deserted and the second floor nearly as bad. For a time several stores tried the down stairs, but somehow it was no go. Gradually the grade of stores kept dripping until a second hand store went in. And even it couldn't make a go of it.

And today the place is bleak and drear looking. The dirty windows leer at one as he passes, and now and then there seems to be a ghostly tinkle of glasses, but it's only imagination. The place is empty.

For the benefit of all and sundry, formal and informal notice is hereby given that this colyum will not appear on Friday. The roaming will be done in Pittsburgh where there is some marrying to be done. Not me, a pal of mine and I have to be there. I've stood by him under all known circumstances almost, thus far and I couldn't go back on him in a time of stress such as this. I've roamed with him all over this state and parts of New York and Ohio, fought with him and for him, but that sort of thing will be out after tomorrow. He'll have somebody else to fight with and roam with and my idea of it is that both the bride and groom are mighty lucky.

The coroner of this county will be at the wedding, but not in any professional capacity. Also a flock of the groom's old pals, who want to be present at the last sad rites marking the end of his bachelor freedom. And when the organ begins pealing out that well known Prisoner's Song from Lohengrin, the boys will just check one more off the list.

Much dignity and eclat are expected, and the Society Editor has been giving me lessons for a few days on "What The Well Dressed Best Man Will Wear."

Twenty Five Years Ago Today

It was Sunday and if the editor of this paper thinks this is a stall to avoid digging out a dusty file book, my suggestion is that he go down to the vault himself.

There are several lessons to be learned from the returning Florida tourists. First is that the sunshine is still prevalent as ever. Second that Florida is a good place to visit but a poor place to live. Third, that the chap who buys real estate down there is just flirting with the referee in bankruptcy, and fourth that New Castle, Pa., is still about the best city in the United States.

BRAKES
cause accidents or prevent them
-which kind are yours?

It only takes one skid—one emergency in which brakes fail to hold—to cause an accident. It might be slight—perhaps a jammed fender—and it might cost a life. Why gamble with chance? Brakes, out of balance or not equalized will cause a car to skid to the right or left. Four-wheel brakes—when out of adjustment—add no more to your ability to stop than two-wheel brakes. Your car is only as safe as its brakes. Keep them in perfect adjustment.

We have installed a new JUMBO Giant Brake Tester that scientifically tests two or four-wheel brakes. Use our accurate test every 1500 miles. If adjustments are needed we will make them quickly—at a very reasonable charge.

See For Yourself
Right before your eyes—on accurate hydraulic gauges—the JUMBO Brake Tester reveals the true condition of the brake on each wheel. Eliminates all chance for human error—no guesswork. Assures positive equalization and perfect balance of brakes—maximum braking efficiency—"guaranteed safety!"
